Her Majesty has allowed amendments to the Supplemental Charter of the Royal National Lifeboat Institution as set out in the Schedule to this Order, and which shall come into effect on 1st November 2011.

Judith Simpson

SCHEDULE

AMENDMENTS TO THE SUPPLEMENTAL CHARTER OF THE ROYAL NATIONAL LIFEBOAT INSTITUTION

1. Delete Article 3 and substitute:

“3. The object of the Institution (“the Object”) shall be to save lives at sea and on inland and flood waters. In order to achieve the Object, the powers of the Institution shall without limitation include the following:-

3.1 to promote safety and provide relief from disaster at sea and on inland and flood waters;

3.2 to advance the education of the public in matters relating to safety at sea and on inland and flood waters and in the history and heritage of the Institution;

3.3 to promote the efficiency of rescue services at sea and on inland and flood waters; and

3.4 to relieve and assist those who have been involved in saving lives at sea and on inland and flood waters in any capacity, and who are in need of such relief or assistance by reason of poverty, disability, infirmity or otherwise, and their dependants.”

2. Delete Article 4 and substitute:

“4. The work of the Institution shall be primarily but not exclusively carried out in and around the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, the Isle of Man, the Channel Islands and the Republic of Ireland.”

3. Delete Articles 5, 6, 7 and 8 and substitute, as follows:

“5. The Institution shall have the following powers with regard to its funds:

5.1 To deposit or invest its funds not immediately required for its purposes in or upon such investments, securities, or property as may be thought fit, in its absolute discretion, with power to vary or transpose the same or any of them for or into others of any nature;

5.2 To establish trading and other subsidiary companies and entities;

5.3 To delegate the management of cash and investments to one or more financial experts;

5.4 To appoint and remunerate as nominee or custodian for the purpose of holding funds, investments or documents, any corporation which is controlled either by the Institution or by a financial expert acting on its instructions.

In this Article ‘financial expert’ means an individual, firm or company who the Board of Trustees reasonably believe to be competent to advise the Institution as to matters relating to investment.

6. The income and property of the Institution shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the Object and no portion thereof shall be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend or bonus or otherwise howsoever by way of profit to the Governors or the members of the Board of Trustees: provided that nothing herein contained shall prevent the holding and investment of income which may be surplus to immediate requirements, or the payment in good faith of:

6.1 out of pocket expenses necessarily and lawfully incurred by members of the Board of Trustees in the interests of the Institution, or

6.2 reasonable and proper remuneration and expenses lawfully due to any Governor, officer or servant of the Institution who is not also a member of the Board of Trustees, or

6.3 pensions to former employees of the Institution or their dependants, or

6.4 interest at a reasonable rate on money borrowed for the purposes of the Institution from any member of the Board of Trustees, or

6.5 reasonable and proper rent for premises demised or let to the Institution by any member of the Board of Trustees, or

6.6 the premium of any indemnity insurance to cover the liability of members of the Board of Trustees or any other officers (other than the auditors) in connection with the costs of a successful defence to a criminal prosecution brought against them as charity trustees or otherwise, or personal liability incurred in respect of any act or omission which is or is alleged to be negligence or a breach of trust or breach of duty, unless the person concerned knew (or must reasonably be assumed to have known) that, or was reckless whether the act or omission was a breach of trust or breach of duty; or

6.7 fees remuneration or other benefit to any company of which a member of the Board of Trustees is a member holding no more than 1% of the issued share capital; or

6.8 fees remuneration or other benefit in money or money's worth if the payment or benefit complies with any condition set out in the Bye-Laws; or

6.9 fees remuneration or other benefit in money or money's worth which has been previously and expressly authorised in advance and in writing by the Charity Commission and any procedures prescribed by the said Charity Commission are fully adhered to.

7. The members of the Institution, who shall be known collectively as Governors, shall comprise:

7.1 Governors and Life Governors, who shall be such persons as subscribe to the funds of the Institution such sums as may from time to time be prescribed in the Bye-Laws; and

7.2 Honorary Life Governors and Ex-officio Governors, who shall be such persons as may be elected, or holders of offices as may be designated from time to time, in accordance with the Bye-Laws.

8. Subject to the provisions of this Our Supplemental Charter government and control of the Institution and the management of the Institution's affairs shall be vested in and the responsibility of the Board of Trustees of the Institution.

8.1 The Board of Trustees shall be appointed and its business conducted in such manner as may be prescribed by or in accordance with the Bye-Laws. The Board of Trustees may from time to time delegate any of its powers or any particular aspect of the Institution's business to one or more committees of the Board of Trustees constituted and conducted as the Board of Trustees sees fit, subject to the provisions of this our Supplemental Charter and to the Bye-Laws.

8.2 There shall be a general committee called the Council whose purpose shall be to advise and assist the Board of Trustees on broad policy and strategy issues and external relations, and carry out such functions as may be required under the Bye-Laws or by the Board of Trustees. There shall also be Advisory Committees whose purpose shall be to advise and support the Board of Trustees on matters of a specialist or technical nature. The Council and Advisory Committees shall be appointed and their business conducted in such manner as may be prescribed by or in accordance with the Bye-Laws.

8.3 The Board of Trustees shall appoint from its own number its Chairman who shall be the Chairman of the Institution, and may appoint a Deputy Chairman or Deputy Chairmen, a Vice-Chairman, the Treasurer and such other officers as it thinks fit, upon such terms as it shall decide.”

4. Renumber existing Article 9 as Article 14
5. Renumber existing Article 10 as Article 16
6. Insert new Articles 9, 10, 11, 12 and 13, as follows:

“9. There shall be the following Honorary Officers of the Institution, the method and terms of whose appointments shall, subject to the provisions of this paragraph, be prescribed in the Bye-Laws:

9.1 A President appointed from amongst the Vice-Presidents by the Board of Trustees; and

9.2 An unlimited number of Vice-Presidents appointed by the Board of Trustees from amongst the Governors as a mark of special recognition of service to the Institution.

10. An Annual General Meeting of the Institution shall be held once in every calendar year at such time and place and to conduct such business as shall be prescribed by and in accordance with the Bye-Laws. Other General Meetings of the Institution may be held from time to time as shall be prescribed by and in accordance with the Bye-Laws.

11. Subject to the provisions of this Our Supplemental Charter, the Institution may from time to time make, adopt, revoke, amend or add to Bye-Laws of the Institution by resolution of the Board of Trustees followed by a resolution passed by a majority of not less than three fourths of the Governors present and voting at an Annual General Meeting or at any other General Meeting duly convened for that purpose. Provided that no new Bye-Law and no such alteration, addition or repeal as aforesaid shall have any force or effect if it be repugnant to any of the provisions of this Our Supplemental Charter or to the Laws of Our Realm and further provided that any such revocation, amendment, or addition has been authorised as required by the relevant authorities in any jurisdiction in which the Institution is registered as a charity and the Irish Revenue Commissioners.

12. No member of the Board of Trustees or officer of the Institution shall be liable for the acts, neglects or default of any other member of the Board of Trustees or officer of the Institution, or for any loss or expense happening to the Institution. Nor shall any member of the Board of Trustees or officer of the Institution be liable for any loss or deficiency or damages arising out of the negligence or bankruptcy or tortious act of any person, or for any loss or damage occasioned by any error or misfortune whatever which shall happen in the execution of the duties of the office of member of the Board of Trustees or officer of the Institution, or in relation thereto, unless the same shall happen through the dishonesty or wilful default of such member or officer.

13. There may be a Patron of the Institution, being such person as the Board of Trustees may decide, but We being Patron of the Institution as heretofore constituted reserve unto Ourselves during Our pleasure the office of Patron of the Institution.”

7. In Article 14 as renumbered:

- (a) insert ‘clear’ after ‘twenty –one’;
- (b) in the last sentence insert ‘English’ immediately before ‘law’;
- (c) remove the full stop after ‘law’; and
- (d) insert after ‘law’, “and further provided that any such revocation, amendment, or addition has been authorised as required by the relevant authorities in any jurisdiction in which the Institution is registered as a charity and the Irish Revenue Commissioners.”

8. Insert new Article 15, as follows:

“15. The Institution may by resolution passed by not less than three fourths of the Governors present and voting at a General Meeting of which not less than twenty-one clear days’ notice in writing has been given, determine to surrender this Our Supplemental Charter subject to the sanction of Us, Our Heirs or Successors in Council and upon such terms as we or they may consider fit and wind up or otherwise deal with the affairs of the Institution in such manner as shall be determined by such resolution or in default of such direction, as the Board of Trustees shall think expedient and if, on the winding up or dissolution of the Institution there shall remain, after the satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities, any property whatsoever, the same shall not be paid or distributed among the Governors or any of them but shall, subject to any special trusts affecting the same, be given and transferred to some charitable association or associations having objects similar to the Object set out in Article 3 of this Our Supplemental Charter, and prohibiting the distribution of its or their income or property amongst its or their members to an extent at least as great as is imposed on the Institution by this Our Supplemental Charter, such association or associations to be determined by the Board of Trustees at or before the time of dissolution, and if and so far as effect cannot be given to such provision, then to some other charitable object. For these purposes the term “charitable” means charitable in accordance with the law of England and Wales, provided that it will not include any purpose which is not charitable in accordance with any statutory provisions regarding the meaning of the word “charitable” or the words “charitable purposes” in force in any part of the United Kingdom and Republic of Ireland.”

9. Amend any cross references throughout the Supplementary Charter as a result of the amendments to the numbering.

8. ~~(1) Elected or nominated members of Council~~ Members of Council elected under section 4 (15)–(25) or appointed as an external member under section 4 (7)–(10) above shall serve for a period of four years and shall be eligible to serve for a second consecutive period of four years.

(2) The member of Council elected under section 4 (6) shall serve for such period as may be determined under the regulations of the Conference of Colleges.

(3) Members of Council co-opted under section 6 may serve for a period of up to four years and shall be eligible to serve for a second consecutive period of up four years.

(4) A member who has served two consecutive periods of four years under sub-sections (1) or (3) above shall not be eligible to serve as an elected external or co-opted member of Council earlier than four years after the end of his or her period of service.

(25) Casual vacancies Vacancies caused other than by expiry of term as a member shall be filled for the remaining period of office of the member replaced in the same manner as that member took up office except on termination of Council membership under section 9 (1) of an ex officio member serving under section 4 (1)–(5) or (11)–(14), when the vacancy shall be filled in accordance with section 10.

(36) A person who is elected or nominated to fill a casual vacancy under sub-section (2) above shall be eligible to serve as an elected or nominated external member of Council after the expiry of the period referred to in sub-section (2) above for a period of four years and shall be eligible to serve for a second consecutive period of four years.

~~(4) Co-opted members of Council may serve for a period of up to four years and shall be eligible to serve for a second consecutive period of up four years.~~

~~(5) A member who has served two consecutive periods of four years under this section shall not be eligible to serve as an elected nominated or co-opted member of Council earlier than four years after the end of his or her period of service.~~

~~(6) This section does not apply to the members of Council referred to in section 4 (1)–(5) or (11)–(14) above.~~

9. ~~(1) If an elected member of Council ceases to be a member of Congregation, his or her membership of Council shall end immediately.~~

~~(2) If a nominated member, having been appointed under the provisions of section 4 (7)–(10) of this statute, becomes the resident holder of a teaching, research, or administrative post in the University or in any college, society, or Permanent Private Hall, his or her membership of Council shall end immediately.~~

10. ~~Council may determine by regulation that if an elected, nominated, or co-opted member of Council has attended fewer than a prescribed number of meetings in any academic year, his or her membership of Council shall end at the close of that year.~~

9. (1) Membership of Council shall terminate:

(a) automatically on disqualification from acting as a Trustee by virtue of section 72 of the Charities Act 1993 or any statutory re-enactment or modification of that provision;

(b) for good cause, defined as behaviour incompatible with the member's duties as a Trustee of the University;

(c) automatically at the close of an academic year for absence without permission from a prescribed number of meetings in that year, as determined by regulation;

(d) automatically on a member elected under section 4 (15)–(25) ceasing to be a member of Congregation;

(e) automatically on an external member appointed under section 4 (7)–(10) becoming the resident holder of a teaching, research, or administrative post in the University or in any college, society, or Permanent Private Hall;

(f) automatically for an existing appointed, elected or co-opted member on taking office which entitles him or her to serve as an ex officio member of Council;

(g) in accordance with section 8 above on expiry of term;

(h) in accordance with section 11 below unless the Chancellor shall determine otherwise in an individual case;

(i) on acceptance by Council of the resignation of a member.

(2) The decision to remove a member under sub-section (1)(b) above shall only be made by unanimous ballot of all Council members entitled to vote (not including the member whose removal is the subject of the ballot) in accordance with a procedure laid down by Council by standing order.

10. (1) On termination of Council membership under section 9 (1) above of an ex officio member other than the Vice-Chancellor, the appropriate body shall appoint a replacement Council member who shall serve with voting rights but that appointment shall cease automatically on a new appointment to the underlying post;

(2) for the purposes of sub-section (1) above, the appropriate body shall be as follows:

(a) under section 4 (2), the Conference of Colleges;

(b) under section 4 (3)–(4), a substitute qualified under section 17 of Statute IX shall be appointed by the head of the college or society that elected the Proctor in question, or, if the head is absent or the headship is vacant, the viceregent;

(c) under section 4 (5), a substitute qualified under section 17 of Statute IX shall be appointed by the head of the college or society that elected the Assessor, or, if the head is absent or the headship is vacant, the viceregent;

(d) under section 4 (11)–(14), the relevant divisional board.

(3) On termination of Council membership under section 9 (1) above of the Vice-Chancellor, one of the Pro-Vice-Chancellors shall be appointed chairman by the Chancellor or, in default of appointment by the Chancellor, by Council.

11. (1) No person appointed, elected, or serving as a member of Council while holding any academic post of the University or any other of the university or college posts specified in section 3 (6)–(9) of Statute IV shall continue to serve on Council after having retired from that post (or, in the case of a person retiring at different dates from those university and college posts previously held by him or her, after the date of the later of those retirements), unless the Chancellor shall otherwise determine in an individual case.

(2) No person who has previously retired from any of the university or college posts specified in section 3 (6)–(9) of Statute IV, and who does not continue to hold another such post, shall be appointed or elected a member of Council, unless the Chancellor shall otherwise determine in an individual case.

(3) No other person appointed, elected, or serving as a member of Council while not holding such a university or college post shall continue to serve on Council, and no such person shall be appointed or elected a member of Council, after the 30 September immediately preceding his or her 66th birthday, unless the Chancellor shall otherwise determine in an individual case.

12. (1) If at any time a vacancy arises through an appointing or electing body having failed to make an appointment or, in the case of an election, through insufficient nominations having been received by the due date or for any other reason, the Vice-Chancellor and Proctors shall appoint a person to the vacancy.

(2) This section shall apply to vacancies arising on termination of Council membership which in the opinion of Council have not been filled within a reasonable time by the appropriate body under section 10 (2)(b) and (3), such opinion to be determined by a two-thirds majority of those present and voting.'

3 Ibid., renumber existing sections 11–23 as 13–25.

4 In section 6 of Statute I (Supplement (1) to Gazette No. 4633, 9 October 2002, Vol. 133, p. 97, amended on 10 February 2010, Vol. 140, p. 748, 18 March 2010) insert new paragraph (12):

'(12) 'ex officio' means by virtue of office, for example, a person serving on a committee by virtue of his or her office.'

5 In section 2 (2) of Statute IV concerning Congregation (Supplement (1) to Gazette No. 4633, 9 October 2002, Vol. 133, p. 100, amended with effect from 8 April 2009, Gazette Vol. 139, p. 932, 23 April 2009), delete 'Statute VI (sections 1–18 only)' and substitute 'Statute VI (sections 1–20 only)', in section 1 (4) delete 'section 17' and substitute 'section 18', and in section 6 (5) delete 'Sections 13–18' and substitute 'Sections 15–20'.

6 In section 19 (2) of Statute XVI concerning property, contracts and trusts (Supplement (1) to Gazette No. 4633, 9 October 2002, as amended), delete 'sections 13–18' and substitute 'sections 15–20'.

7 These Statutes shall be effective from a date following their approval by Her Majesty in Council, to be announced by prior notice in the Gazette.

THE 12th DAY OF OCTOBER 2011

PRESENT,

THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY
IN COUNCIL

The University Court of the University of Edinburgh, in exercise of the powers conferred on it by section 3 of the Universities (Scotland) Act 1966, has made an Ordinance, No. 210 (Election of Chancellor and General Council Assessors and Chairing of General Council Meetings), as set out in the Schedule to this Order:

The provisions of the Act relating to the making of this Ordinance have been complied with:

The Ordinance has been referred to the Scottish Universities Committee of the Privy Council, who have reported to Her Majesty that in their opinion it may properly be approved:

Therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the Ordinance into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve it.

SCHEDULE

UNIVERSITY OF EDINBURGH ORDINANCE No. 210

ELECTION OF CHANCELLOR AND GENERAL COUNCIL ASSESSORS AND CHAIRING OF GENERAL COUNCIL MEETINGS

At Edinburgh, the Twentieth day of June, Two thousand and eleven.

WHEREAS the Universities (Scotland) Act 1966, Schedule 2, Part I, paragraph 1 empowers the University Court to amend the composition, powers and functions inter alia of the General Council and Schedule 2, Part I, paragraph 3 of that Act empowers the University Court to fulfil the purposes inter alia of section 14 of the Universities (Scotland) Act 1889 and section 14(4) of that Act includes as one of the purposes inter alia to regulate the time, place and manner of presenting and electing University officers:

AND WHEREAS the University Court on the recommendation of the General Council deems it expedient to alter the arrangements for the election of the Chancellor and for the election of Assessors nominated by the General Council to serve on the University Court as presently governed by University of Edinburgh Ordinance No. 198 as amended by University of Edinburgh Ordinance No. 205;

THEREFORE the University Court, in exercise of the powers conferred upon it by Sections 3 and 4 of the Universities (Scotland) Act 1966, and with particular reference to paragraphs 1 and 3 of Part I of Schedule 2 to that Act, hereby statutes and ordains:

Meetings of the General Council

1. At the meetings of the General Council, the Chancellor, whom failing the Rector, whom failing the Principal, whom failing the Chancellor's Assessor shall preside; and in the absence of all the said Officials the Chair shall be elected by the meeting, provided that, at any meeting of the Council held in furtherance of electing an Assessor or Assessors to the University Court, no member of the Senatus Academicus, member of staff of the University of Edinburgh or matriculated student of the University of Edinburgh shall preside. The Chair shall have a deliberative and a casting vote, and in case of an equality of votes, the Chair or any one appointed by the University Court to act for the Chair as hereinafter provided, shall have a casting vote. The Chair of the meeting shall decide all points of order.

Election of a Chancellor

2. (1) The Chancellor shall be elected for life by members of the General Council whose details are contained within the General Council Register by means of a single transferable vote system. The election shall be conducted in accordance with this Ordinance and arrangements determined from time to time by the Business Committee of the General Council.

(2) When a vacancy occurs in the office of Chancellor, the Business Committee of the General Council shall fix the date by which nominations for a successor shall be received, hereinafter called the nomination day, such date to be no fewer than 90 days from the date of the vacancy. The Secretary of the General Council shall intimate the nomination day and the conditions for the nomination of candidates in accordance with the arrangements determined from time to time by the Business Committee of the General Council. No person who is a member of staff of the University of Edinburgh or who is a matriculated student of the University of Edinburgh shall be eligible for nomination for election as Chancellor.

(3) The result of the election shall be transmitted to the Secretary of the University Court as soon as it is established and the said Secretary shall disseminate the said result within the University.

Election of General Council Assessors

3. (1) In the ordinary course and rotation, Assessors shall be elected every two years by members of the General Council whose details are contained within the General Council Register, other than those who are also members of the Senatus Academicus of the University of Edinburgh. The Assessors shall be elected in accordance with this Ordinance and arrangements for the election of General Council Assessors as determined from time to time by the Business Committee of the General Council.

(2) Only members of the General Council can be nominated for election as a General Council Assessor. No member of the Senatus Academicus or member of staff of the University of Edinburgh or a matriculated student of the University of Edinburgh shall be eligible for nomination for election as a General Council Assessor not withstanding that they may be a member of the General Council.

(3) Assessors shall be elected to serve for a period of office of four years and while eligible for re-nomination shall only be eligible for re-nomination for one consecutive period of office.

(4) In the case of a vacancy arising from the resignation, death or legal incapacity of an Assessor or upon an elected Assessor becoming a member of the Senatus Academicus, a member of staff of the University of Edinburgh or a matriculated student of the University of Edinburgh, the Business Committee of the General Council shall determine the appropriate course of action.

(5) The result of an election shall be transmitted to the Secretary of the University Court as soon as it is established and the said Secretary shall disseminate the said result within the University.

Validity of an election

4. The validity of any election held in terms of this Ordinance shall not be affected by any defect in the procedure carrying out such election unless on the application of a candidate or an individual designated by the candidate to represent them to the Secretary of the General Council prior to the results of the election being declared, the Convener or Acting Convener of the Business Committee of the General Council shall after due enquiry declare the election invalid.

Incapacity of Chair or Secretary

5. If the Chair of a meeting or the Secretary of the General Council is incapacitated by illness or otherwise from discharging the duties in reference to an election imposed by this Ordinance, or if the office of Secretary becomes vacant, the University Court in the case of the Chair of the meeting, and the Business Committee in the case of the Secretary, shall appoint a person to discharge such duties and the person so appointed shall, so far as the purposes of the election are concerned, act as, and be deemed to be, Chair of the meeting or Secretary, as the case may be.

Revocation of Ordinances

6. On the date on which this Ordinance comes into force, Ordinance No. 198 (Election of Chancellor and General Council Assessors) and Ordinance No. 205 (Election of General Council Assessors - Amendment of Ordinance No. 198) shall be revoked.

Effective date

7. This Ordinance shall come into force on the date on which it is approved by Her Majesty in Council.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF these presents are sealed with the Common Seal of the University Court of the University of Edinburgh and subscribed on behalf of the Court in terms of the Requirements of Writing (Scotland) Act 1995.

The following report from the Committee of Council for the Affairs of Jersey and Guernsey was today read at the Board:

“In accordance with Your Majesty’s General Order of Reference of 22 February 1952 the Committee have considered a Petition of the Chief Pleas of the Island of Sark:

“That, in pursuance of their Resolutions of 6th October 2010 and 10th November 2010, the Chief Pleas of the Island of Sark at a meeting on 10th November 2010 approved a Projet de Loi entitled the Reform (Sark) (Amendment) (No. 2) Law, 2010. That the Projet de Loi is as set forth in the attached Schedule. The Petition most humbly prays that Your Majesty might be graciously pleased to sanction the Reform (Sark) (Amendment) (No. 2) Law, 2010, and to order that it shall have force of law in the Island of Sark.

“The Committee have considered the Projet de Loi and have agreed to report that it may be advisable for Your Majesty to approve and ratify it.”

Her Majesty, having taken the report into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve and ratify the Projet de Loi (a copy of which is annexed to this Order) and to order that it, together with this Order, shall have the force of law in the Island of Sark and shall be entered on the Register of the Island of Guernsey and observed accordingly.

Her Majesty’s Officers in the Bailiwick of Guernsey, and all others whom it may concern, are therefore to take notice of Her Majesty’s Order and to proceed accordingly.

THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY

IN COUNCIL

Representations were duly made to Her Majesty in Council by the Secretary of State for Justice that, subject to the exceptions below, burials should be discontinued forthwith in:-

- 1) St Mary's Churchyard, Nether Stowey, Bridgwater, Somerset;
- 2) St Peter's Churchyard, Heysham, Morecambe, Lancashire;
- 3) St John the Evangelist Churchyard, Heath Hayes, Staffordshire.

In pursuance of the Order in Council made on 13th July 2011 these representations have been published and taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council.

Accordingly, Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers conferred on Her by section 1 of the Burial Act 1853, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that burials shall be discontinued forthwith in the places listed above, subject to the following exceptions:-

- (a) in the place numbered 2 above, in any vault or walled grave in the churchyard, burial may be allowed but every coffin buried in such vault or grave must be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented; and
- (b) in the places numbered 2 and 3 above, in any existing earthen grave in the churchyard, the burial may be allowed of the body of any member of the family of the person or persons previously buried in that grave, but no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than one metre below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY
IN COUNCIL

The Secretary of State for Justice, after giving ten days' notice of his intention to do so, has, under the Burial Act 1853 as amended, made representations to Her Majesty in Council that, subject to the exception below, burials should be discontinued in:-

- 1) St Peter's Churchyard, Malvern Wells, Worcestershire;
- 2) St Stephen's Churchyard, St Stephen-in-Brannel, St Austell, Cornwall;
- 3) St Wystan's Churchyard, Repton, Derbyshire;
- 4) Ordsall Parish Churchyard, Ordsall, Nottinghamshire (as shown hatched on the plan annexed hereto);
- 5) Churchyard of St Mary the Virgin, Templecombe, Somerset.

The exceptions are that:-

- (a) in the places numbered 3, 4 and 5 above, in any existing earthen grave in the churchyard, the burial may be allowed of the body of any member of the family of the person or persons previously buried in that grave, but no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than one metre below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave;
- (b) in the place numbered 4 above, in any grave space in which no interment has previously taken place, the burial may be allowed of any person for whom, or any member of the family for which that grave space has been reserved and appropriated, with the exclusive right of burial there, but no part of the coffin containing the body shall be less than one metre below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave; and

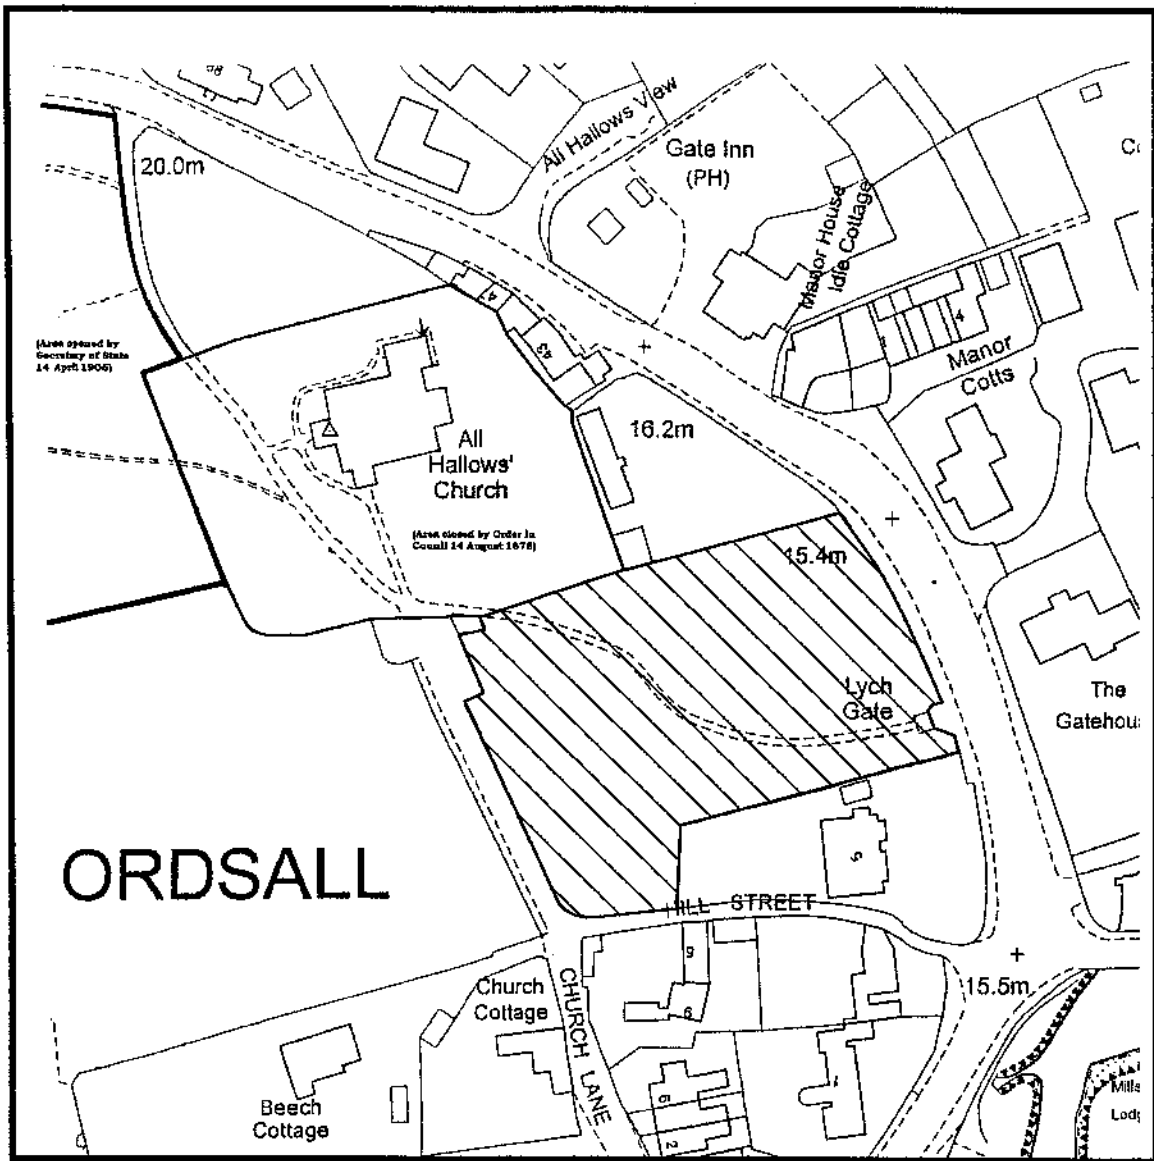

- (c) in the place numbered 5 above, in any vault or walled grave in the churchyard, burial may be allowed but every coffin in such vault or grave must be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

Her Majesty in Council is pleased to give Notice of these representations and to order that they be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council on 24th November 2011.

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order should be published in the London Gazette, and that copies of it should be fixed on the doors of the Churches or Chapels of the above mentioned places, or displayed conspicuously inside them, for one month before 24th November 2011.
