The University Court of the University of Aberdeen did on the 7th day of December 2010, in pursuance of the power vested in them by section 3 of the Universities (Scotland) Act 1966, make Ordinance No. 142 (Employment) as set forth in the Schedule to this Order.

The provisions of the Act relating to the making of the Ordinance have been complied with.

The said Ordinance has been referred to the Scottish Universities Committee of the Privy Council, who have reported to Her Majesty that in their opinion the said Ordinance may properly be approved.

Therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said Ordinance into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve it.

SCHEDULE

ORDINANCE of the UNIVERSITY COURT of the UNIVERSITY OF ABERDEEN NO. 142 [EMPLOYMENT)]

At Aberdeen, the Seventh day of December Two Thousand and Ten

WHEREAS the Universities (Scotland) Act 1966, section 3 and Schedule 2, Part I, paragraph 1, empowers the University Court of the University of Aberdeen to amend its own powers;

AND WHEREAS the University Court deems it expedient, in the interests of justice, fairness and protection of academic freedom, to make additional provisions and revisions to the employment rights of the University's employees.

AND WHEREAS the University Court, in the exercise of its powers to make resolutions and regulations in relation to discipline, redundancy, grievance, dismissal and other removal from office of academic staff, recognises its obligations regarding the desirability of ensuring the academic freedom of academic staff as provided for in section 26 of the Further and Higher Education (Scotland) Act 2005;

THEREFORE the University Court, in exercise of the powers conferred upon them by section 3 of, and paragraph 1 of Part 1 of Schedule 2 to the Universities (Scotland) Act 1966, by Ordinance No. 141 and all other powers enabling it in that behalf, hereby statutes and ordains:

Interpretation

1. In this Ordinance, unless the context otherwise requires, the following expressions have the meanings respectively assigned to them -

"academic freedom" includes freedom (within the law) to (a) hold and express opinion; (b) question and test established ideas and received wisdom; and (c) present controversial or unpopular points of view;

"employee" means any person who works for the University of Aberdeen under a contract of employment;

"policies and procedures" means policies and procedures established by or under resolutions and regulations of the University;

"relevant person" means an employee who is engaged in teaching, the provision of learning or research at the University and includes the Principal of the University;

"University" means the University of Aberdeen;

"University Court" means the Court of the University of Aberdeen.

Construction

2. This Ordinance and any policy or procedure following upon this Ordinance shall be construed in every case to give effect to the following guiding principles, -
 - (a) to avoid unlawful discrimination and promote equality of opportunity, dignity at work and good relations within the University;
 - (b) to protect the academic freedom of relevant persons;
 - (c) to enable the University to provide education, promote learning and engage in research efficiently and economically; and
 - (d) to apply the principles of justice and fairness.

Amendment of the University Court's powers

3. The powers of the University Court are amended in accordance with sections 4 to 8 of this Ordinance.

Duty to establish and maintain policies and procedures

- 4 (1) The University Court shall, after consultation with the recognised Trades Unions, approve written policies and procedures in accordance with sections 4 to 8 of this Ordinance. The University Court shall undertake such consultation with a view to reaching agreement with the recognised Trades Unions.
- (2) The University Court shall ensure that all policies and procedures approved in terms of this Ordinance shall at all times be compliant with any requirement contained in employment legislation which is in force at the time. In the event that any such policy or procedure is not so compliant, the relevant employment legislation shall prevail.

Grievance procedures

5. (1) The University Court shall approve and maintain grievance policies and procedures.
- (2) The grievance procedures shall include provision to facilitate resolution of a grievance through an initial informal process which may include mediation. Such informal process shall make provision for waiving to a reasonable extent the time limits within which an employee is otherwise required to pursue a formal grievance process.
- (3) The grievance procedures applicable to a formal determination of the grievance shall include the right to a panel hearing at the final stage. Where the grievance involves a relevant person, the panel shall include at least one relevant person not being the person bringing the grievance and shall exclude any person connected with the grievance.

Disciplinary procedures

6. (1) The University Court shall approve and maintain disciplinary policies and procedures.
- (2) In all cases where dismissal of an employee is an option, an internal panel hearing shall be convened to hear and determine the case. Where the case for dismissal is against a relevant person, the internal panel shall include at least one relevant person not being the person subject to the disciplinary proceedings and shall exclude any person connected with the disciplinary proceedings.

Redundancy procedures

7. (1) The University Court shall approve and maintain policies and procedures for the avoidance of redundancy. Such procedures shall include provision for consultation with the recognised Trades Unions in cases where redundancies are contemplated. The University Court shall undertake such consultation with a view to reaching agreement with the recognised Trades Unions.
- (2) The University Court shall approve and maintain policies and procedures for the management of dismissal on the grounds of redundancy.
- (3) Nothing in any procedure made under this section shall prejudice, alter or affect any rights, powers or duties of the University or apply in relation to a relevant person unless
 - (a) his or her appointment is made, or his or her contract of employment is entered into, on or after 20 November 1987; or
 - (b) he or she is promoted on or after that date.
- (4) For the purposes of this subsection in relation to a relevant person, a reference to an appointment made or a contract entered into on or after 20 November 1987 or to promotion on or after that date shall be construed in accordance with the following:
 - (a) a person shall be taken to be promoted on or after 20 November 1987 if immediately before that date he is paid on a scale which provides for a maximum rate of remuneration (his former pay scale) and on or after that date the terms of his appointment, or of his contract of employment, are varied (whether with effect before or after that date) so that:
 - (i) his rate of remuneration is increased to a rate which exceeds the highest point on his former pay scale at the date on which the increase takes effect; or
 - (ii) he is paid on another scale on which the highest point at the date the variation takes effect exceeds the highest point on his former pay scale at that date; or
 - (iii) he is paid on a basis which does not provide for a maximum rate of remuneration.
 - (b) For the purposes of paragraph (a) above, references in relation to a pay scale, to the highest point on the scale at any date are references to the maximum rate of remuneration payable at that date in accordance with the scale whether on a regular or a discretionary basis.
 - (c) For the purposes of this sub-section a person holding an office or position of any description shall not be taken to be promoted by reason only of any general variation of the terms of appointment or of contracts of employment of persons holding offices or positions of that description.

- (d) Nothing in any procedure made under this section shall apply in relation to a person who held an office or position at the institution in question immediately before 20 November 1987 by reason only of the fact that:
 - (i) he is appointed to, or employed in, a different office or position at the institution instead of his former office or position if the terms of his appointment or of his contract of employment which relate to remuneration are the same as those of his former appointment or contract of employment;
 - (ii) he is appointed to, or employed in, an additional office or position at the institution which carries no remuneration; or
 - (iii) he is promoted or is appointed to, or employed in, a different office or position at the institution if he is so promoted, appointed or employed only on a temporary basis for a particular purpose with an expectation that the promotion will cease to have effect, or that he will resume his former office or position, when that purpose is accomplished.
- (5) In all cases of dismissal on the grounds of redundancy of a relevant person, the University Court shall oversee the implementation of the redundancy procedures and shall convene an internal panel to hear and determine each case.
- (6) An internal panel convened to hear a case for redundancy of a relevant person shall operate in accordance with the redundancy procedures made under this section, shall include at least one relevant person not being the person subject to the redundancy and shall exclude any person connected with the case for redundancy.

Appeals

- 8. (1) The University Court shall approve and maintain appeal procedures in relation to the matters specified in sections 4 to 7 of this Ordinance.
- (2) Where an appeal involves a relevant person other than the Principal, the person hearing the appeal shall not be an employee, shall not be connected with the case and shall be selected by the Principal of the University or a member of the staff of the University nominated by the Principal from a panel constituted by agreement with the recognised Trade Union.
- (3) Where an appeal involves the Principal, the person hearing the appeal shall not be an employee, shall not be connected with the case and shall be selected by the Chair of the University Court from a panel constituted by agreement with the recognised Trade Union.

Revocation of the Ordinance of the University Commissioners (Academic Staff)

9. (1) The Ordinance of the University Commissioners (Academic Staff) inserted by the University Commissioners (Statute Modifications) (University of Aberdeen) Order 1992 (SI 1992/2704) is revoked.
- (2) Until such time as the policies and procedures provided by sections 4 to 8 of this Ordinance are approved, the provisions of the Ordinance of the University Commissioners (Academic Staff) shall continue to apply.

Commencement

10. This Ordinance shall come into force after its approval by Her Majesty in Council on a date to be determined by the University Court.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF these presents are sealed with the Common Seal of the University Court of the University of Aberdeen and subscribed on behalf of the Court in terms of the Requirements of Writing (Scotland) Act 1995.

"In accordance with Your Majesty's General Order of Reference of 22nd February 1952 the Committee have considered a Petition of the States of Guernsey:

"That, in pursuance of their Resolution of 27th November 2002, the States of Deliberation at a meeting on 28th July 2010 approved a Projet de Loi entitled the Mental Health (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 2010 and requested the Bailiff to present a most humble Petition to Your Majesty in Council praying for Your Royal Sanction to it. That the States of the Island of Alderney at a meeting held on 20th October 2010 considered the Projet de Loi when a Resolution was passed agreeing to the application to Alderney. That the Chief Pleas of the Island of Sark at a meeting held on 6th October 2010 considered the Projet de Loi when a Resolution was passed agreeing to the application to Sark. That the Projet de Loi is as set forth in the attached Schedule. The Petition most humbly prays that Your Majesty might be graciously pleased to sanction the Mental Health (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 2010, and to order that it shall have force of law in the Bailiwick of Guernsey.

"The Committee have considered the Projet de Loi and have agreed to report that it may be advisable for Your Majesty to approve and ratify it".

Her Majesty, having taken the report into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve and ratify the Projet de Loi (a copy of which is annexed to this Order) and to order that it, together with this Order, shall have the force of law in the Bailiwick of Guernsey and shall be entered on the Register of the Island of Guernsey and observed accordingly.

Her Majesty's Officers in the Bailiwick of Guernsey, and all others whom it may concern, are therefore to take notice of Her Majesty's Order and to proceed accordingly.
