WHEREAS on the 26th day of September 2012, the Charity Commission for England and Wales did, in pursuance of sections 68 and 69 of the Charities Act 2011, approve and make a Scheme relating to the Governors of the Charity for Relief of the Poor Widows and Children of Clergymen (commonly known as The Corporation of the Sons of the Clergy and hereinafter called "the Corporation"):

AND WHEREAS the Corporation is incorporated by a Royal Charter granted in the year 1678 as amended by an Order in Council dated the 5th day of April 1971 ("the 1971 Order"):

AND WHEREAS the said Scheme cannot come into operation unless or until Her Majesty in Council thinks fit to delete the 1971 Order and amend the said Charter in such manner as will permit the Scheme to have effect:

AND WHEREAS the Corporation has accordingly made an application to Her Majesty in Council for the deletion of the 1971 Order and for the amendment of the said Charter:

NOW, THEREFORE, Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers enabling Her in that behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the 1971 Order be deleted and that the said Charter be amended in the manner set forth in the Schedule to this Order.

Richard Tilbrook

SCHEDULE

AMENDMENTS TO THE CHARTER OF THE GOVERNORS OF THE CHARITY FOR RELIEF OF THE POOR WIDOWS AND CHILDREN OF CLERGYMAN

1. The provisions of the Charter of 1678 regarding the provision of assistance to beneficiaries shall cease to have effect and shall be replaced with the following provision:

“The Corporation shall apply the clear yearly income and at its discretion the whole or part of the property of the Corporation for the public benefit in providing assistance to beneficiaries, whether directly or indirectly, in such manner as and by such means as the Court of Assistants from time to time in their absolute discretion think fit for the relief or prevention of poverty or hardship or for the relief of illness, whether physical or mental.

“beneficiaries” means members of the clergy, ordinands and the spouses, former spouses, children and dependants of living or deceased members or former members of the clergy or of ordinands.

(a) “children” includes adopted children, step-children and persons treated as the children of a marriage or civil partnership.

(b) “civil partners” means the members of a civil partnership within the meaning of Section 1(1) of the Civil Partnership Act 2004.

(c) “clergy” and “members of the clergy” mean bishops, priests and deacons of the Anglican Communion.

(d) “ordinands” means persons who are preparing for ordination as members of the clergy.

(e) the “spouse” of a person means his or her wife, husband, civil partner, widow, widower or surviving civil partner.”.

2. The Charter of 1678 shall be amended to include the following provision:

“(1) The Court of Assistants may resolve that any provision of the trusts of the Corporation relating to any powers exercisable by the Court of Assistants in the administration of the Corporation, or regulating the procedure to be followed in any respect in connection with the administration of the Corporation should be modified in such manner as is specified in the resolution.

(2) Any resolution of the Court of Assistants under this clause must be approved by a further resolution which is passed at a general meeting of the Corporation either –

- (a) By a majority of not less than two thirds of the Governors entitled to attend and vote at the meeting who vote on the resolution, or
 - (b) By a decision taken without a vote and without any expression of dissent in response to the question put to the meeting.
- (3) Where the required resolution has been passed the powers and procedures of the Corporation are to be taken to have been modified in accordance with the terms of the resolution and effective from the date of the further resolution passed at the general meeting in accordance with clause (2) (a) or (b) above.
- (4) The Court of Assistants must promptly send to the Privy Council and Charity Commission a copy of the amendment made under this provision and keep a copy of any such amendment with this Charter.”.

- 3) Churchyard of St Michael and All Angels, Tenterden, Kent.

The exceptions are that:-

- (a) in the places numbered 1, 2 and 3 above, in any existing earthen grave in the churchyard, the burial may be allowed of the body of any member of the family of the person or persons previously buried in that grave, but no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than one metre below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave;
- (b) in the places numbered 2 and 3 above, in any vault or walled grave in the churchyard, burial may be allowed but every coffin in such vault or grave must be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented; and
- (c) in the place numbered 3 above, in the churchyard, in any grave space in which no interment has previously taken place, the burial may be allowed of any person for whom, or any member of the family for which that grave space has been reserved and appropriated, with the exclusive right of burial there, but no part of the coffin containing the body shall be less than one metre below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

Her Majesty in Council is pleased to give Notice of these representations and to order that they be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council on 28th November 2012.

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order should be published in the London Gazette, and that copies of it should be fixed on the doors of the Churches or Chapels of the above mentioned places, or displayed conspicuously inside them, for one month before 28th November 2012.
