A Petition of The Salvage Association was today read at the Board.

The Petition sets out among other things that The Salvage Association was originally incorporated by Royal Charter in 1867 by the name of 'The Association for the Protection of Commercial Interests as respects Wrecked and Damaged Property', and granted a new Charter under the name of The Salvage Association by Her Majesty on the 19th day of November 1971, and the Petition prays that Her Majesty might be pleased to accept the surrender of the Charter.

The Petition encloses a Deed of Surrender which states that the affairs of the Association have been wound up and the Association is about to be dissolved, and with a view to such dissolution the Association has asked Her Majesty to sanction the surrender of their Charter in accordance with the provisions of Article 10(b) thereof.

ACCORDINGLY, Her Majesty, having taken the Petition and Deed into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to sanction and accept the surrender of the Charter of The Salvage Association in accordance with the Deed of Surrender; and to declare that the Charter is revoked and annulled: Provided always that this revocation and annulment shall not prejudice, abridge or affect any existing claim of any party or parties against the Association or any member or members of it.

SCHEDULE

STATUTE to alter and amend the Statutes of CHURCHILL COLLEGE IN THE UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE which amending Statutes having been duly made at a General Meeting of the Governing Body of the said College specifically summoned for the purpose and held on the sixteenth day of March Two Thousand and Twelve (notice of the proposed amending Statute having been given to the University) and having been passed by the votes of not less than two-thirds of the number of persons present and voting is now submitted for the approval of Her Majesty the Queen in Council.

WE the Master Fellows and Scholars of Churchill College in Cambridge DO HEREBY in pursuance of the power given to us by Section 7 of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act 1923 alter and amend the Statutes in relation to our said College in the following manner:-

THAT the Statutes II, IV, XVIII, XIX, XXIV be amended to read as hereinafter shown:

Statute II: The Visitor

1. ~~The Visitor of the College shall be a person appointed by the Sovereign on the recommendation of the Lord Chancellor. There shall be a Visitor of the College who shall be appointed by the Governing Body from those who hold or who have held high judicial office.~~

Statute IV: Retirement and Resignation of the Master

1. Except as hereinafter provided the Master ~~shall retire on 31 July next following his or her seventieth birthday, or, if that birthday is on 31 July, then not later than that date~~ shall serve for a maximum of ten years.
2. At any time before the Master is ~~due to retire~~ leaves office in accordance with section 1 of this Statute, the Governing Body shall have power, subject to the Master's consent, and with the concurrence of the votes of not less than one-half of the total membership nor less than two-thirds of the numbers of members present and voting, to permit him or her to remain in office for up to one year after the ~~normal~~ intended date of retirement in order to avoid an interval of more than three months between the retirement of the Master and the assumption of office of his or her successor.

Statute XVIII: The Fellows

4. The responsibilities, stipends, allowances, and privileges of Fellows under each Title shall be determined by Ordinance on the recommendation of the Council provided that no stipend in respect of the Fellowship shall be paid to a Fellow under Titles A, C, D, E and G.

Statute XIX: Election of Fellows

4. Under Title A, the Council may elect any person who holds office in the College or in the University, and when each election under Title A is made, the Council shall specify the qualifying office or offices in the University or College, or both, and in the case of a College office the tenure of each College office. A Fellow under Title A shall relinquish the Fellowship ~~on reaching the retiring age, on retiring from their prime employment,~~ or at a time six months after ceasing to hold one or more of the qualifying offices specified, whichever is the earlier, unless that Fellow is re-elected to the Fellowship under one or more new qualifying offices.

Statute XXIV: ~~Retiring Age~~ Retirement from Fellowship

1. ~~Every holder of a College post shall vacate the post not later than 30 September next following his or her sixty seventh birthday, or, if that birthday is on 30 September, then not later than that date.~~
- 2.1. Every Fellow, other than a Fellow under Title D, shall vacate the Fellowship ~~on 30 September next following his or her sixty seventh birthday, or, if that birthday is on 30 September, then on that date on~~ their retirement from their prime employment.
