HER MAJESTY, having taken the Statute into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve it.

SCHEDULE

STATUTES MADE BY THE GOVERNING BODY OF RUGBY SCHOOL UNDER THE PROVISIONS OF THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS ACT 1868

PREAMBLE

WHEREAS

Recital 1 The will of Laurence Sheriffe, of London, Grocer, dated 1567 appointed two trustees and included provision for a school house and for a learned man, being a master of arts, to teach a free grammar school in the school house to serve chiefly the children of Rugby and Brownsover (Rugby School).

Recital 2 Replacement trustees were appointed by decrees of the Court of Chancery in 1614 and 1653.

Recital 3 Acts of Parliament of 1747, 1777, 1814 and 1826 and an order of the Trustees dated 1 August 1780 enabled the Trustees to raise funds and otherwise deal with the assets of the charity and made provisions for the government, management and administration of the school, acknowledging that in the years since its foundation the school had become both a school educating fee paying pupils (in addition to Foundationers) and a boarding school (as well as a day school). The said Act of 1777 formed the trustees as a corporate trustee with a common seal, the corporate trustee to be known as "the Trustees of the Rugby Charity founded by Lawrence Sheriff Grocer of London" (the Trustees of the Rugby Charity).

Recital 4 In 1864 the Clarendon Commission Report followed an investigation carried out by a Royal Commission into the governance and management of nine schools including Rugby School. The Report notes that although Rugby School had been founded to serve the needs of a local population, it had become a national institution and that it would not be appropriate to cause Rugby School to revert to being a local school. After debate in Parliament, many of the Commission's recommendations were put into law by the Public Schools Act 1868.

Recital 5 The Public Schools Act 1868 (PSA) gave powers to the Trustees of the Rugby Charity to make statutes for determining and establishing the constitution of a new body ("the Corporation") to act as the new governing body and corporate trustee of Rugby School in its place.

Recital 6 All powers previously vested in the Trustees of the Rugby Charity in relation to Rugby School or its government were to be exercised by the Corporation on its appointment.

Recital 7 The Corporation's constitution was determined and established by a statute made on 18 February 1870 by the Special Commissioners appointed for the Purposes of PSA. The Corporation thereby became the corporate trustee of Rugby School (the Charity) to be known as the Governing Body of Rugby School.

Back to Top

Recital 8 Some of the property held by the Trustees of the Rugby Charity in relation to Rugby School was transferred to the Corporation as corporate trustee on the terms set out in a Scheme approved by Queen Victoria in 1873.

Recital 9 The Rugby Lower School (Transfer) Act 1906 (1906 Act) incorporated the governors of the school now called the Lawrence Sheriff School, Rugby and transferred that school to that new corporate body, discharging the Corporation from all liabilities relating to that school, save for those referred to in the 1906 Act.

Recital 10 The remainder of the property held by the Trustees of the Rugby Charity in relation to the school was transferred to the Corporation as corporate trustee on the terms of the Rugby School Act 1922 (1922 Act). The Trustees of the Rugby Charity were then dissolved with the remainder of its property being transferred to a body established under the 1922 Act known as the Almshouses Trustees.

Recital 11 In 1993 Rugby School became fully co-educational.

Recital 12 The Objects for which the Charity are established are those contained in the Will of Laurence Sheriffe, of London, Grocer, dated 1567 and the above mentioned instruments and are:

The provision of a broad liberal Christian education at a boarding and day school at Rugby ("Rugby School") for children from Rugby and neighbourhood and elsewhere, and by ancillary or incidental activities and other associated activities for the benefit of the community ("the Objects").

Recital 13 PSA gave the Corporation the power to repeal or alter Statutes made in exercise of powers under the Act subject always to the approval of Her Majesty in Council.

Recital 14 The Corporation in exercise of its said powers with the approval of the Charity Commission and Her Majesty in Council has amended its Statutes for the better governance of the School and Charity and for other purposes of benefit to the community.

Recital 15 These Statutes repeal and replace all earlier statutes in respect of Rugby School with effect from the 21st day of July 2010.

Statute 1. Name and status

The name of the body corporate ("the Corporation") which acts as the corporate trustee of Rugby School ("the Charity") is the Governing Body of Rugby School.
