SCHEDULE

UNIVERSITY OF EDINBURGH ORDINANCE No. 208

EMPLOYMENT OF ACADEMIC STAFF

At Edinburgh, the Thirteenth day of August, Two Thousand and ten.

WHEREAS the University Court wishes its employment practices to comply with current and future legislation and regulation and with recognised good practice in relation to discipline, redundancy, grievance, dismissal, other removal from office of staff and associated appeals procedures;

And WHEREAS the University Court, in the exercise of its powers to make resolutions and regulations in relation to discipline, redundancy, grievance, dismissal, other removal from office of academic staff and associated appeals procedures, recognises its obligations regarding the desirability of ensuring the academic freedom of academic staff as provided for in section 26 of the Further and Higher Education (Scotland) Act 2005;

And WHEREAS the University Court is committed to fostering the best possible relations between itself and the recognised trades unions and in particular to consulting with the recognised trades unions prior to making resolutions or regulations in relation to discipline, redundancy, grievance, dismissal, other removal from office of staff and associated appeals procedures;

THEREFORE the University Court of the University of Edinburgh in exercise of the powers conferred upon it by section 3 of, and paragraph 1 of Part I of Schedule 2 to, the Universities (Scotland) Act 1966, by Ordinance No. 207 and all other powers enabling it in that behalf, statutes and ordains:

1. The Ordinance of the University Commissioners (Academic Staff) inserted by the University Commissioners (Statute Modifications) (University of Edinburgh) Order 1992 (S.I. 1992/2700) is revoked.
2. Any regulations and resolutions made by the University Court in relation to the discipline, redundancy, grievance, dismissal, other removal from office of academic staff and associated appeals procedures, shall be made after appropriate consultation with recognised trades unions and shall give effect to the guiding principle that academic staff employed by the University Court shall have freedom within the law to hold and express opinion, to question and test established ideas and received wisdom and to present controversial or unpopular points of view without placing in jeopardy the appointments they hold or any entitlements or privileges they enjoy.
3. "Academic staff" means any person holding a contract of employment with the University Court as a Professor, Reader, Senior Lecturer or Lecturer of the University and any other person holding a contract of employment with the University Court engaged in teaching, the provision of learning or research in the University.
4. This Ordinance shall come into force after its approval by Her Majesty in Council on a date to be determined by the University Court.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF these presents are sealed with the Common Seal of the University Court of the University of Edinburgh and subscribed on behalf of the Court in terms of the Requirements of Writing (Scotland) Act 1995.

WHEREAS the Universities (Scotland) Act 1966 ("the Act"), section 3 and paragraph 1 of Part I of Schedule 2, empowers the University Court to amend its own powers;

WHEREAS the University Court wishes to vary or revoke the Ordinance of the University Commissioners (Academic Staff) inserted by the University Commissioners (Statute Modifications) (University of Glasgow) Order 1992 (S.I. 1992/2698);

And WHEREAS the University Court does not have an express power in terms of section 3 of, and paragraph 1 of Part I of Schedule 2 to, the Act to vary or revoke the Ordinance of the University Commissioners (Academic Staff) inserted by the University Commissioners (Statute Modifications) (University of Glasgow) Order 1992 (S.I. 1992/2698);

THEREFORE the University Court of the University of Glasgow in exercise of the powers conferred upon it by section 3 of, and paragraph 1 of Part I of Schedule 2 to, the Act and of all other powers enabling it in that behalf, statutes and ordains:

1. The University Court shall have the power to vary or revoke, by ordinance, the Ordinance of the University Commissioners (Academic Staff) inserted by the University Commissioners (Statute Modifications) (University of Glasgow) Order 1992 (S.I. 1992/2698).
2. This Ordinance shall come into force the day after the date of its approval by Her Majesty in Council.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF these presents are sealed with the Common Seal of the University Court of the University of Glasgow and subscribed on behalf of the said Court as required by Ordinance of the University Court No. 177.

PRESENT,

THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY
IN COUNCIL

WHEREAS in pursuance of section 3 of the Universities (Scotland) Act 1966, the University Court of the University of St. Andrews did, on the 7th September 2010, make Ordinance No. 128 (Employment of Academic Staff) as set out in the Schedule to this Order:

AND WHEREAS the provisions of that Act relating to the making of the Ordinance have been complied with:

AND WHEREAS the Ordinance has been referred to the Scottish Universities Committee of the Privy Council, who have reported to Her Majesty that in their opinion the Ordinance may properly be approved:

NOW, THEREFORE, Her Majesty, having taken the Ordinance into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve it.

SCHEDULE

ORDINANCE OF THE UNIVERSITY COURT OF THE UNIVERSITY OF ST ANDREWS

ORDINANCE No. 128

(EMPLOYMENT OF ACADEMIC STAFF)

At St Andrews, the seventh day of September, two thousand and ten.

WHEREAS the University Court wishes its employment practices to comply with current and future legislation and regulation and with recognised good practice in relation to discipline, redundancy, grievance, dismissal and other removal from office of academic staff;

And WHEREAS the University Court, in the exercise of its powers to make resolutions and regulations in relation to discipline, redundancy, grievance, dismissal and other removal from office of academic staff, recognises its obligations regarding the desirability of ensuring the academic freedom of academic staff as provided for in section 26 of the Further and Higher Education (Scotland) Act 2005;

THEREFORE the University Court of the University of St Andrews in exercise of the powers conferred upon it by section 3 of, and paragraph 1 of Part I of Schedule 2 to, the Universities (Scotland) Act 1966, by Ordinance of the University Court of the University of St Andrews No. 127 and of all other powers enabling it in that behalf, statutes and ordains:

PART I

REVOCATION AND AMENDMENT OF ORDINANCES

1. The Ordinance of the University Commissioners (Academic Staff) inserted by the University Commissioners (Statute Modifications) (University of St Andrews) Order 1992 (S.I. 1992/2685) is revoked.
2. In paragraph I(c) of Ordinance of the University Court of the University of St Andrews No. 554, the words "subject to the Ordinance made by the University Commissioners in exercise of their powers under the Education Reform Act 1988" are deleted.

PART II
ACADEMIC FREEDOM

3. Any regulations and resolutions made by the University Court in relation to the discipline, redundancy, grievance, dismissal and other removal from office of academic staff, shall give effect to the guiding principle that academic staff employed by the University Court shall have freedom within the law to hold and express opinion, to question and test established ideas and received wisdom and to present controversial or unpopular points of view without placing in jeopardy the appointments they hold or any entitlements or privileges they enjoy.

PART III
INTERPRETATION

4. "Academic staff" means any person holding a contract of employment with the University Court as a Professor, Reader, Senior Lecturer or Lecturer of the University and any other person holding a contract of employment with the University Court engaged in teaching, the provision of learning or research in the University.

PART IV
DATE OF OPERATION

5. This ordinance shall come into force after its approval by Her Majesty in Council on a date to be determined by the University Court.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF these presents are sealed with the Common Seal of the University Court of the University of St Andrews and are subscribed on its behalf as required by Ordinance No. 118 of the said University Court, by Louise Richardson, Member of Court, and Ronald Piper, Secretary of the Court.

- 6) Churchyard of St Mary the Virgin, Southwell, Nottinghamshire (as shown hatched on the plan annexed hereto).

The exceptions are that:-

- (a) in the places numbered 1, 3, 4, 5 and 6 above, in any existing earthen grave in the churchyard, the burial may be allowed of the body of any member of the family of the person or persons previously buried in that grave, but no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than one metre below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave; and

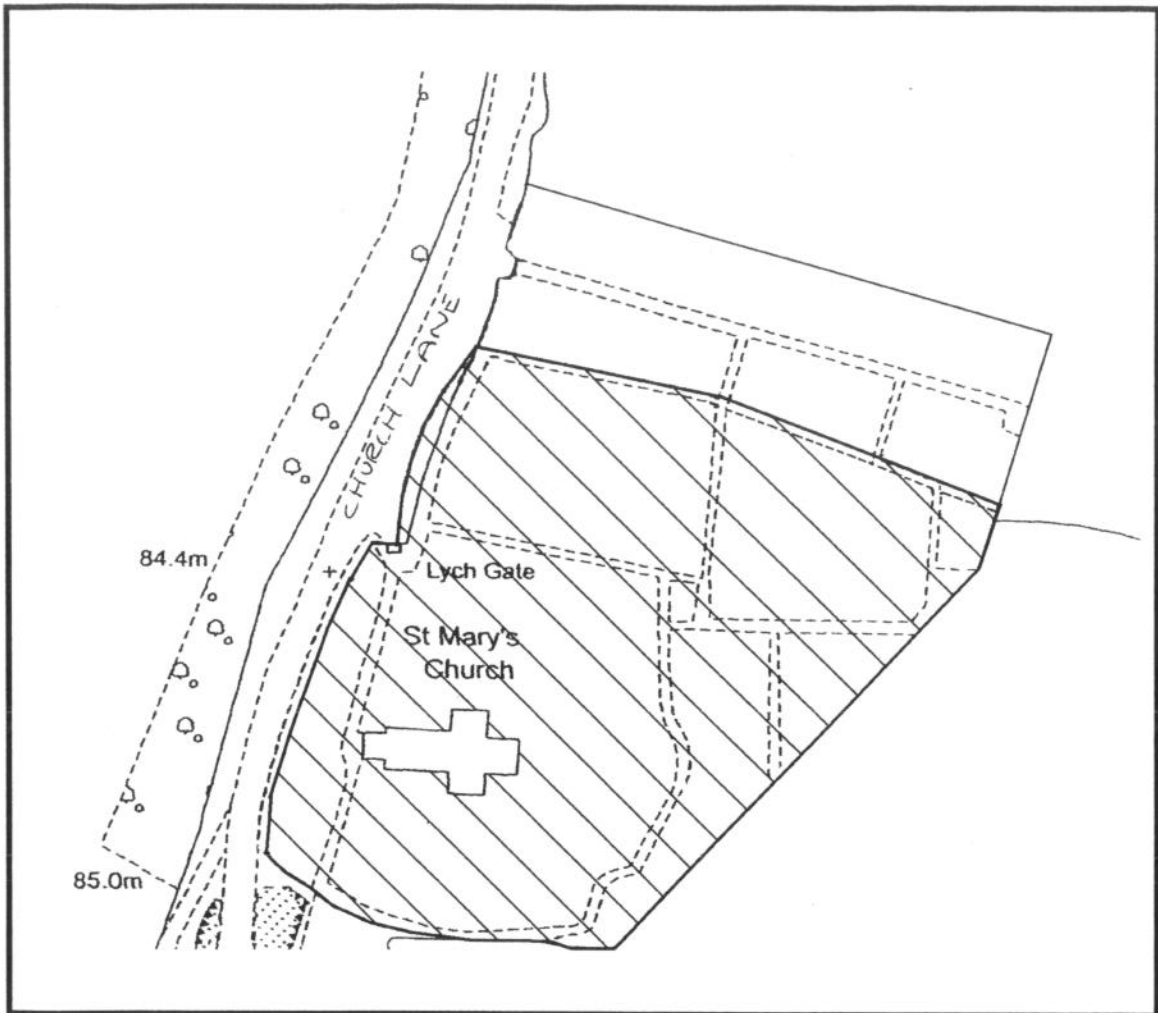

- (b) in the place numbered 5 above, in any grave space in which no interment has previously taken place, the burial may be allowed of any person for whom, or any member of the family for which that grave space has been reserved and appropriated, with the exclusive right of burial, but no part of the coffin containing the body shall be less than one metre below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

Her Majesty in Council is pleased to give Notice of these representations and to order that they be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council on 24th November 2010.

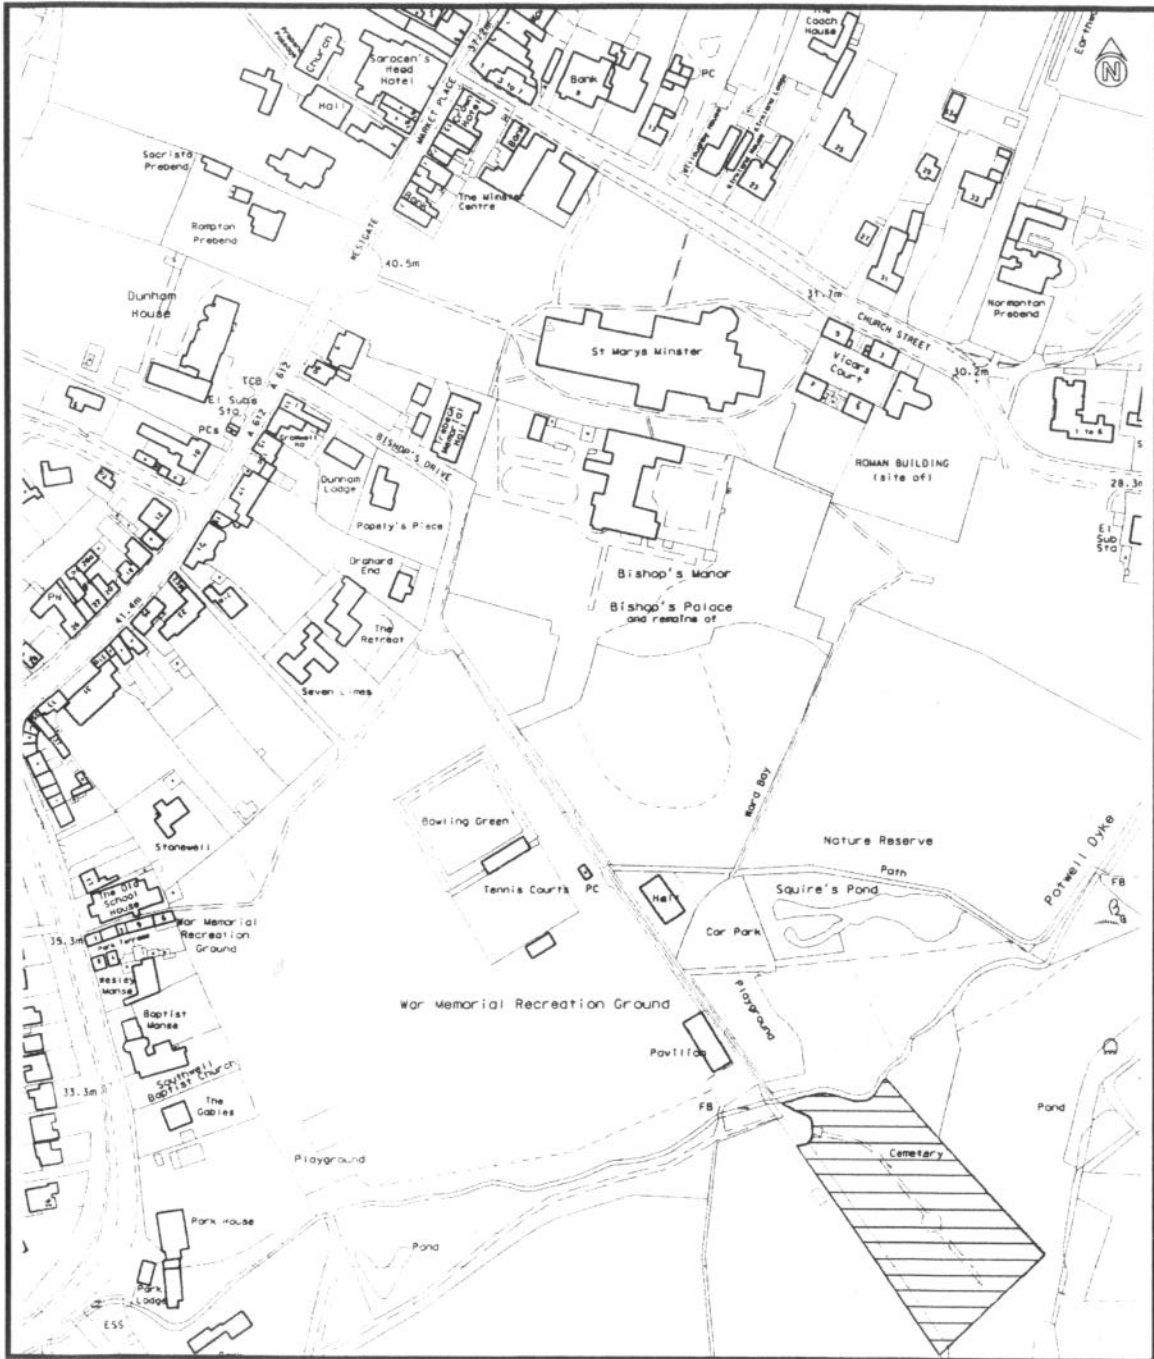

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order should be published in the London Gazette, and that copies of it should be fixed on the doors of the Churches or Chapels of the above mentioned places, or displayed conspicuously inside them, for one month before 24th November 2010.
