BY THE QUEEN

A PROCLAMATION

DETERMINING THE SPECIFICATIONS AND DESIGN FOR A NEW SERIES OF ONE POUND GOLD PIEDFORT COINS

ELIZABETH R.

Whereas under section 3(1)(a), (b), (c), (cd) and (d) of the Coinage Act 1971 We have power, with the advice of Our Privy Council, by Proclamation to determine the denomination, the design and dimensions of coins to be made at Our Mint and to determine the weight and fineness of certain gold coins, the remedy to be allowed in the making of such coins and their least current weight, and to provide for the manner of measurement of the variation from the standard weight of coins:

And Whereas it appears to Us desirable to order that there should be made at Our Mint a new series of coins of the denomination of one pound in gold piedfort:

We, therefore, in pursuance of the said section 3(1)(a), (b), (c), (cd) and (d), and of all other powers enabling Us in that behalf, do hereby, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, proclaim, direct and ordain as follows:

ONE POUND GOLD PIEDFORT COIN

1. (1) A new coin of gold of the denomination of one pound shall be made, being a coin of a standard weight of 15.976 grammes, a standard diameter of 22.05 millimetres, a millesimal fineness of not more than 916.7, and being circular in shape.

(2) In the making of the said gold coin a remedy (that is, a variation from the standard weight or diameter or fineness specified above) shall be allowed of an amount not exceeding the following, that is to say:

(a) a variation from the said standard weight of an amount per coin of 0.030 grammes;

(b) a variation from the said standard diameter of 0.125 millimetres per coin;
and

(c) a variation from the said millesimal fineness of two per mille.

(3) The least current weight of the said gold coin shall be 15.946 grammes.

(4) The variation from the standard weight will be measured as the average of a sample of not more than one kilogram of the coin.

(5) The design of the said gold coin shall be as follows:

‘For the obverse impression Our effigy with the inscription “· ELIZABETH II · DEI · GRA · REGINA · FID · DEF” and for the reverse the image of St George armed, sitting on horseback, attacking the dragon with a sword, and a broken spear upon the ground, and the date of the year. The coin shall have a grained edge.’

2. This Proclamation shall come into force on the twenty-fourth day of May Two thousand and eighteen.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace, this twenty-third day of May in the year of Our Lord Two thousand and eighteen and in the sixty-seventh year of Our Reign.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN

The Governing Body of Christ's College, Cambridge has made a Statute amending the Statutes of the College in accordance with the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act 1923, and in the form set out in the Schedule to this Order.

The Statute has been submitted to Her Majesty in Council, and the provisions of the Act relating to publication in the London Gazette and laying before both Houses of Parliament have been complied with.

No petition or address has been presented against the Statute.

Therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the Statute into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve it.

Ceri King

SCHEDULE

STATUTE referred to in the foregoing Order in Council

COLLEGE STATUTES

A Statute to reform arrangements for the discipline of students of the College and other matters.

Whereas in accordance with section 7(2) of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act 1923 the Governing Body of Christ's College in the University of Cambridge approved the following amendments to the Statutes of the College at a meeting specially summoned for the purpose on 28 November 2017;

And whereas the Council of the University of Cambridge, having been duly notified of the same proposed amendments, raised no objection to them (Vice-Chancellor's Notice of 15th November 2017);

The Master and Fellows of Christ's College humbly petition Her Majesty to approve the following amendments to the Statutes of the College.

The Seal of the College is affixed below, and witnessed under the hands of:

Mr. David Ball,
Fellow of the College, Bursar.

Dr. Richard Williams,
Fellow of the College, Keeper of the Statutes.

Christ's College, Cambridge

RESOLUTION OF THE GOVERNING BODY

In accordance with section 7(2) of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act 1923 the Governing Body of Christ's College in the University of Cambridge approved the following amendments to the Statutes of the College at a meeting specially summoned for the purpose on 28 November 2017:

I. STATUTE B

The Government of the College

(1) In B.III.4., delete the entire provision

II. STATUTE C

The Master

(1) In C.II.1., delete the entire provision and replace with the following:

"1. As soon as possible after his election but not before the occurrence of a vacancy in the Mastership, the Master elect shall be presented to the Fellows and shall assume office by making the declaration prescribed in Ordinances. The Master-elect shall acquire none of the rights and privileges of the Mastership until he assumes office."

III. STATUTE D

The Fellows

(1) Insert a new Statute D.IX.6 as follows: "The duties of Fellows shall be laid down by Ordinance."

(2) In D.II.5 delete “the purpose of pursuing research elsewhere than in Cambridge” and replace with “academic purposes, ”.

(3) In D.III.1 delete “Dean”.

IV. STATUTE F

Members of the College in statu pupillari

(1) In F.IV delete the entire chapter and replace with the following:

“1. For the purpose of this Chapter and Ordinances made under it, a student of the College (“student”) is any member of the College, other than a Fellow, who has matriculated and is following a course of study for a degree or other award of the University, together with such other persons or categories of person designated as a student by the Governing Body; and a student shall be taken as having matriculated if that student’s name appears in the College’s Matriculation Register.

2. There shall be an Ordinance to govern the behaviour of students.

3. The Ordinance shall ensure that the College acts impartially and fairly in its procedures for considering complaints of misconduct.

4. The Ordinance shall prescribe the following matters:

(a) the misconduct punishable under the Ordinance, which need not be limited to misconduct on College property;

(b) such rights of appeal as may be thought appropriate and the form they will take, but in no case will an appeal lie to the Visitor;

(c) the penalties that may be imposed, which may include financial penalties, suspension and expulsion;

(d) the relationship with any relevant rules or procedures of the University; and

(e) interim precautionary measures that may be imposed on a student pending investigation and hearing (including an investigation by the University or the police and pending criminal proceedings).

5. The Ordinance may make provision for the following:

(a) the burden and standard of proof;

(b) mediation by or at the instigation of the Dean instead of, or in addition to, formal proceedings;

(c) the circumstances in which an internal investigation or proceedings should not take place where University or criminal processes would be more appropriate;

(d) findings that misconduct by students of the College has taken place, even though the students responsible cannot be identified;

(e) the inclusion of persons who are not members of the College on hearing and appeal panels; and

(f) any other matter that the Governing Body feels is necessary for the fair and efficient operation of the Ordinance.

6. The powers of the College and procedures for their fair exercise in relation to the academic progress and sufficiency of students, including failure in examinations, and academic misconduct shall be prescribed by a further Ordinance under this Chapter.

7. The powers of the College for the implementation of measures in the interests of the health, safety and welfare of members and staff of the College and the procedures for their exercise shall be prescribed by Ordinance under this Chapter.”

V. STATUTE F

Members of the College in statu pupillari

(1) After. F.IV insert the following new Chapter:

“Chapter V: College clubs, societies and other groups

1. An Ordinance may define those clubs, societies and other groups composed (in whole or in part) of student members of the College which are to be subject to regulation by the College, which may include such matters as their establishment, governance, registration, funding, supervision and discipline.

2. The Ordinance may in particular make provision for the imposition of restrictions, conditions and penalties, following prescribed procedures, in the event of irregularity, impropriety or inappropriate behaviour, including penalties for office holders or members for failing to exercise proper control over the affairs of the body or the behaviour of others at events of that body.

3. Penalties to be provided by Ordinance may be imposed on the following:

(a) the club or society, which shall include (but not be limited to) dissolution, a ban on holding meetings or events, financial penalties and the payment of compensation;

(b) office holders, which shall include (but not be limited to) disqualification from holding that or any other comparable office, financial penalties and the payment of compensation; and

(c) members, including (but not limited to) removal of membership, a ban on attendance at all or some meetings and events, financial penalties and payment of compensation.

4. The Ordinance may provide for certain breaches of its provisions to constitute misconduct under the Ordinance provided for in paragraph two of Chapter IV of this Statute and to be handled accordingly.”

The Secretary of State for Justice, after giving ten days' notice of his intention to do so, has, under the Burial Act 1853 as amended, made representation to Her Majesty in Council that, subject to the exceptions below, burials should be discontinued in All Saints Churchyard, Sawley, Long Eaton, Nottinghamshire (as shown hatched on the plan annexed hereto).

The exceptions are that:-

- (a) in any vault or walled grave in the churchyard, burial may be allowed but every coffin in such vault or grave must be separately enclosed by stonework or brick work properly cemented;
- (b) in any existing earthen grave in the churchyard, the burial may be allowed of the body of any member of the family of the person or persons previously buried in that grave, but no part of the coffin containing the body shall be less than one metre below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave; and
- (c) in any grave space in which no interment has previously taken place, the burial may be allowed of any person for whom, or any member of the family for which that grave space has been reserved and appropriated, with the exclusive right of burial there, but no part of the coffin containing the body shall be less than one metre below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

Her Majesty in Council is pleased to give Notice of this representation and to order that they be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council on 29th June 2018.

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order should be published in the London Gazette, and that copies of it should be fixed on the door of the Church or Chapel of the above mentioned place, or displayed conspicuously inside them, for one month before 29th June 2018.
