THE 22nd DAY OF MAY 2019

PRESENT,

THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY
IN COUNCIL

The following Report of a Committee of the Privy Council dated 8th May 2019 was today considered:—

“YOUR MAJESTY was pleased, by Your Order of 13th February 2019, to refer to this Committee a Petition on behalf of the Princess Helena College, praying for the grant of a Supplemental Charter:

“THE COMMITTEE have accordingly considered the Petition and have agreed to report it as their opinion that a Supplemental Charter may be granted in terms of the annexed Draft.”

HER MAJESTY, having taken the Report and the Draft Supplemental Charter accompanying it into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve them. It is accordingly ordered that the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain should cause a Warrant to be prepared for Her Majesty's Royal Signature for passing under the Great Seal a Supplemental Charter in conformity with the annexed Draft.

Her Majesty has allowed amendments to the Charter of The Institute of Measurement and Control as set out in the Schedule to this Order.

SCHEDULE

AMENDMENTS TO THE CHARTER OF THE INSTITUTE OF MEASUREMENT AND CONTROL

1. Delete Articles 2 to 20 and substitute:

- "1. All persons who are and shall hereafter pursuant to this Our Charter and the Byelaws become members of the Body Corporate by the name of "The Institute of Measurement and Control" (hereinafter referred to as "the Institute") and by the same name shall have perpetual succession and a Common Seal, with power to break, alter and make anew the said Seal from time to time at their will and pleasure, and by the same name shall and may sue and be sued in all Courts, and in all manner of actions and suits, and shall have power to do all other matters and things incidental or appertaining to a Body corporate.
2. The objects for which the Institute is hereby constituted are to promote for the public benefit by all available means the general advancement of the science and practice of measurement and control technology and its application.

In furtherance of the above objects but not further or otherwise the Institute may: -

- (a) hold examinations and promote and encourage the education, training and continuing professional development of those who wish to practise, or are interested in, the science of measurement and control or the application thereof;

- (b) hold meetings of the Institute for the presentation of papers and for the interchange of views bearing upon the science of measurement and control technology or the application thereof and generally advance the knowledge of the science of measurement and control at all levels from the academic and professional to the strictly practical;
- (c) encourage the exchange of information and ideas in the disciplines which have some common ground with that of the science of measurement and control as a means of furthering technological developments to the benefit of the community at large;
- (d) print, publish, sell, lend and distribute any papers, treatises, books, pamphlets or communications made to the Institute or any other documents relating to measurement and control or its application, and any reports of the proceedings and accounts of the Institute, or any abstracts thereof or extracts therefrom, and for this purpose cause any translations to be made of such papers, treatises or documents;
- (e) establish, maintain and extend a library of books, works, manuscripts and data bases on the application of measurement and control and other subjects allied thereto;
- (f) make grants of money, books, apparatus, or otherwise for the purpose of promoting education, invention and research in the science of measurement and control or its application or in subjects connected therewith and publish the results of such research;
- (g) hold or promote exhibitions of any new, improved or other instruments, apparatus, machinery or other appliances connected with measurement and control or its application;
- (h) create and maintain a Register of Chartered Practitioners in the disciplines of Measurement and Control whether separately or in association with other organisations, and to establish such conditions of registration as may be desirable, when this Our charter includes a power to award such Individual Chartered Designations;
- (i) purchase, lease, rent or otherwise acquire and maintain property and equipment on behalf of the Institute and enter into the contracts and engagements necessary for these actions;
- (j) establish charitable Local Sections of the Institute within the United Kingdom and abroad such that they shall be constituted and conduct their affairs in accordance with the Byelaws; the power to dissolve such Sections being implicit within this;

- (k) ensure that the activities and services of the Institute foster and promote its aims and objectives and its commitment to the public benefit;
  - (l) do all other things as will further the objects of the Institute.
3. (a) There shall be a Trustee Board and a Council of the Institute, whose governance and responsibilities are as described in the Byelaws.
- (b) There shall be classes of membership and regulation thereof as described in the Byelaws.
4. (a) The income and property of the Institute shall be applied solely towards the promotion of its objects as set forth in this Our Charter.
- (b) No portion thereof shall be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise howsoever by way of profit to members of the Institute and no member of its Trustee Board shall be appointed to any office of the Institute paid by salary or fees, or receive any remuneration or other benefit in money or in kind from the Institute.
- (c) Nothing herein shall prevent any payment in good faith by the Institute:
- i. of reasonable and proper remuneration to any member, Officer or employee of the Institute (not being a member of its Trustee Board) for any agreed services rendered to the Institute;
  - ii. to any member of its Trustee Board of reasonable out-of-pocket expenses.
5. The Byelaws set forth in the Schedule hereto shall be the Byelaws of the Institute and shall remain in force until the same shall be amended in manner hereinafter provided.
6. The Byelaws may direct that any matter which pursuant to this Our Charter may be prescribed or regulated in the Byelaws may be further prescribed or regulated by Regulations. Provided that any such further prescription or Regulation shall not be repugnant to the provisions of this Our Charter or the Byelaws. In any case of conflict, the provisions of this Our Charter shall prevail over those of the Byelaws and Regulations, and the provisions of the Byelaws shall prevail over those of the Regulations.
7. The Corporate Members of the Institute may by resolution passed by not less than two-thirds of such Members present in person or by proxy and voting at any duly convened Extraordinary General Meeting of Corporate Members of which not less than twenty-one days' notice has been given of the matters to be taken in consideration thereat from time to time make, and where made revoke, amend or add to, such Byelaws of the Institute as to them shall seem requisite and convenient for the regulation, government and advantage of the Institute, its members and property and for the furtherance of the objects of the Institute; provided that no such Byelaw, revocation, amendment or addition shall be repugnant to any of the provisions of this Our Charter or cause the Institute to cease to be a charity at law or shall take effect until the same shall have been approved by the Lords of Our Most Honourable Privy Council of which approval a Certificate under the hand of the Clerk of Our said Privy Council shall be conclusive evidence.

8. The Trustee Board may by a resolution passed by a majority of the whole number of the Board and confirmed at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Institute held not less than one month nor more than four months afterwards by a resolution passed by not less than two thirds of the Corporate Members of the Institute present in person or by proxy and voting thereat, revoke, amend or add to the provisions of this Our Charter and such revocation, amendment or addition shall when allowed by Us, Our Heirs or Successors in Council become effectual so that this Our Charter shall thenceforward continue to operate as though it had been originally granted and made accordingly: provided that no such revocation, amendment or addition shall cause the Institute to cease to be a charity at law. This provision shall apply to this Our Charter as revoked, amended or added to in manner aforesaid.

9. The Trustee Board may with the sanction of not less than two-thirds of the Corporate Members of the Institute present in person or by proxy voting at an Extraordinary General Meeting duly called for the purpose surrender this Our Charter and any Supplemental Charter subject to the sanction of Us, Our Heirs or Successors in Council and upon such terms as we or they may consider fit and wind up or otherwise deal with the affairs of the Institute in such manner as shall be directed by the Trustee Board and such General Meeting having due regard to the liabilities of the Institute for the time being and if on the winding up or dissolution of the Institute there remains after the satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities any property whatsoever the same shall not be paid to or distributed among the members of the Institute but shall be given or transferred to some other charitable institute having objects similar to the objects of the Institute, and which shall prohibit the distribution of its or their income and property amongst its or their members to an extent at least as great as is imposed in the Institute under or by virtue of this Our Charter, such institute or institutes to be determined by the Members of the Institute at or before the time of dissolution thereof, and if and so far as effect cannot be given to such provisions then to some charitable object.”.

2. Delete the First Schedule.
3. Delete the title “The Second Schedule” and substitute “The Schedule”.

THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY
IN COUNCIL

The Secretary of State for Justice, after giving ten days' notice of his intention to do so, has, under the Burial Act 1853 as amended, made representations to Her Majesty in Council that, subject to the exceptions below, burials should be discontinued in:-

- 1) St Mary's Churchyard, Whorlton, Barnard Castle, Bishop Auckland, County Durham (as shown hatched on the plan annexed hereto);
- 2) All Saints' Churchyard, Rampton, Cambridgeshire (as shown hatched on the plan annexed hereto).

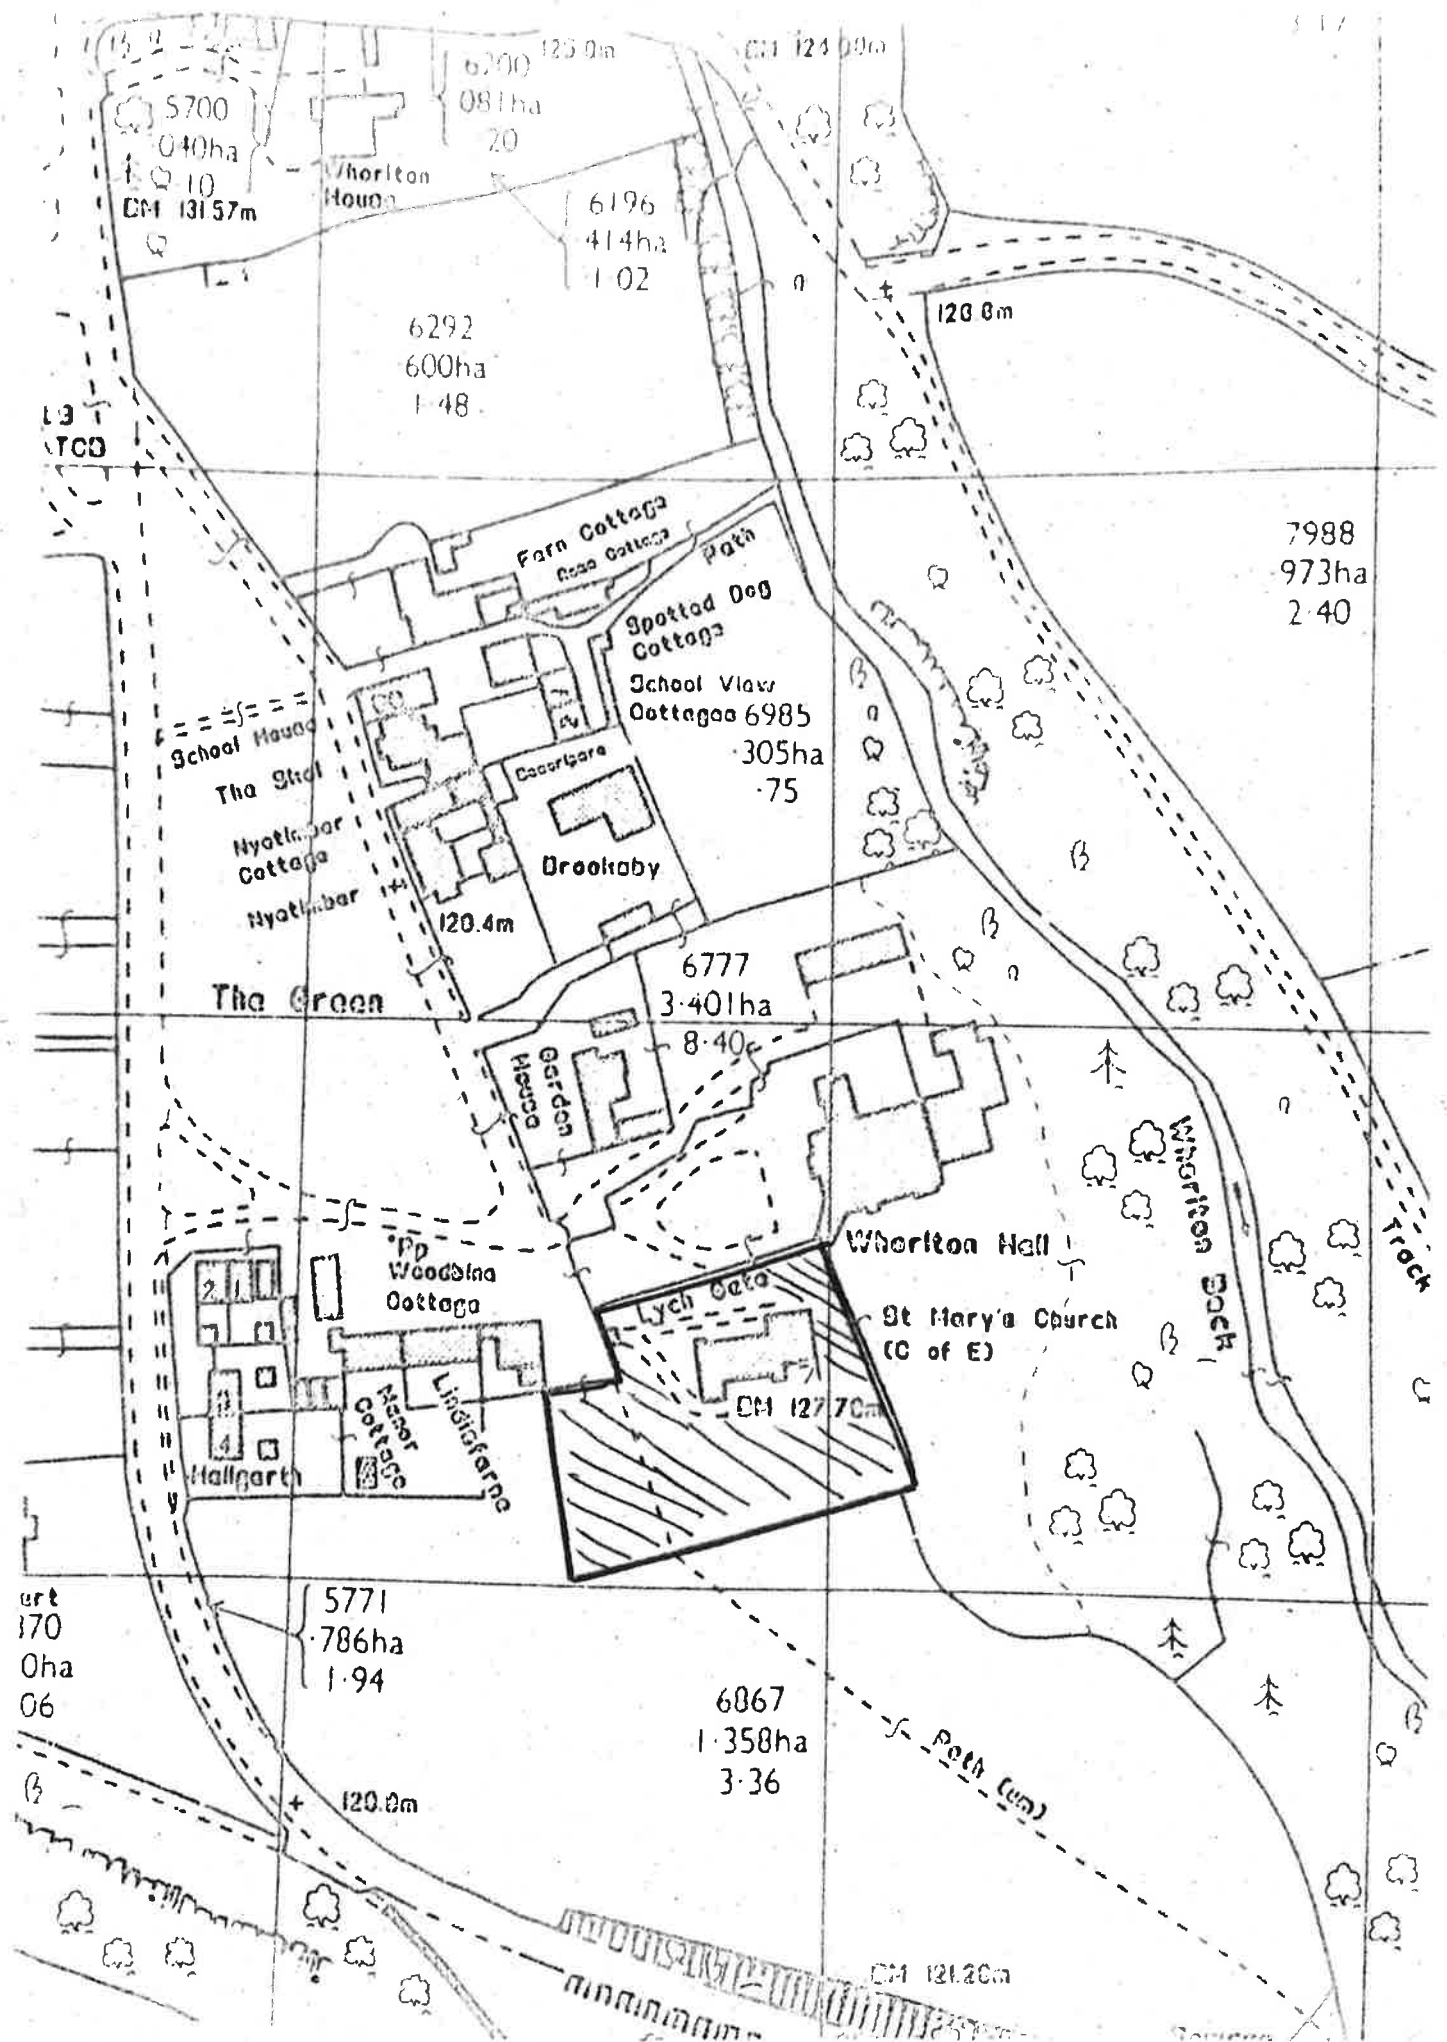

The exceptions are that:-

- (a) in the places numbered above, in any vault or walled grave in the churchyard, burial may be allowed but every coffin in such vault or grave must be separately enclosed by stonework or brick work properly cemented;
- (b) in the places numbered above, in any existing earthen grave in the churchyard, the burial may be allowed of the body of any member of the family of the person or persons previously buried in that grave, but no part of the coffin containing the body shall be less than one metre below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave; and
- (c) in the places numbered above, in any grave space in which no interment has previously taken place, the burial may be allowed of any person for whom, or any member of the family for which that grave space has been reserved and appropriated, with the exclusive right of burial there, but no part of the coffin containing the body shall be less than one metre below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

Her Majesty in Council is pleased to give Notice of these representations and to order that they be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council on 3rd July 2019.

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order should be published in the London Gazette, and that copies of it should be fixed on the doors of the Churches or Chapels of the above mentioned places, or displayed conspicuously inside them, for one month before 3rd July 2019.

THE 22nd DAY OF MAY 2019

PRESENT,

THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY
IN COUNCIL

Representations were duly made to Her Majesty in Council by the Secretary of State for Justice that, subject to the exceptions below, burials should be discontinued forthwith in:-

- 1) St Torney Churchyard, Launceston, Cornwall (as shown hatched on the plan annexed hereto);
- 2) St Nicholas Churchyard, Kemerton, Tewkesbury, Gloucestershire (as shown hatched on the plan annexed hereto).

In pursuance of the Order in Council made on 13th March 2019 these representations have been published and taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council.

Accordingly, Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers conferred on Her by section 1 of the Burial Act 1853, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that burials shall be discontinued forthwith in the places listed above, subject to the following exceptions:-

- (a) in the places numbered above, in any vault or walled grave in the churchyard, burial may be allowed but every coffin in such vault or grave must be separately enclosed by stonework or brick work properly cemented;
- (b) in the places numbered above, in any existing earthen grave in the churchyard, the burial may be allowed of the body of any member of the family of the person or persons previously buried in that grave, but no part of the coffin containing the body shall be less than one metre below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave; and
- (c) in the places numbered above, in any grave space in which no interment has previously taken place, the burial may be allowed of any person for whom, or any member of the family for which that grave space has been reserved and appropriated, with the exclusive right of burial there, but no part of the coffin containing the body shall be less than one metre below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.
