

At the Council Chamber, Whitehall

THE 20th DAY OF JANUARY 2017

Ordinance 3 of the Ordinances of the University of Liverpool provides that the Chancellor of the said University shall be appointed by the Council, but that his appointment, to be effective, must be approved by the Visitor:

Article 2 of the Supplemental Charter of the University also provides that Her Majesty shall be the Visitor of the University through the Lord President of the Council for the time being:

The Council of the said University did on the 6th January 2017 appoint Colm Tóibín, to be the Chancellor of the University and has submitted the said appointment for the approval of the Visitor:

Therefore, the Lord President of the Council, on behalf of Her Majesty as Visitor of the said University, approves the said appointment.
