

At the Council Chamber, Whitehall

THE 23rd DAY OF MAY 2017

BY THE LORDS OF HER MAJESTY'S MOST HONOURABLE PRIVY COUNCIL

The Lords of the Privy Council have considered an application from The Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales for approval of the designatory letters "BFP" which is proposed should be used by certain holders of its Certificate in Finance, Accounting and Business (CFAB).

This is to certify, in accordance with Article 1(b)(vii) of the Institute's Charter, that Their Lordships have approved the use of those designatory letters.
