A PROCLAMATION

DETERMINING THE SPECIFICATIONS AND DESIGNS FOR A NEW SERIES OF ONE HUNDRED POUND, FIFTY POUND, TWENTY-FIVE POUND AND TEN POUND GOLD COINS; A NEW SERIES OF FIVE HUNDRED POUND, TWO POUND, FIFTY PENCE AND TWENTY PENCE SILVER COINS; AND A NEW SERIES OF ONE HUNDRED POUND AND TEN POUND PLATINUM COINS

CHARLES R.

Whereas under section 3(1)(a), (b), (c), (cc), (cd), (d) and (dd) of the Coinage Act 1971 We have power, with the advice of Our Privy Council, by Proclamation to determine the denomination, the design and dimensions of coins to be made at Our Mint, to determine the weight and fineness of certain gold coins, the remedy to be allowed in the making of such coins and their least current weight, and to determine the weight and composition of coins other than gold coins or coins of silver of Our Maundy money, and the remedy to be allowed in the making of such coins, to provide for the manner of measurement of the variation from the standard weight of coins, and to determine the percentage of impurities which such coins may contain:

And Whereas under section 3(1)(f) and (ff) of the Coinage Act 1971 We have power, with the advice of Our Privy Council, by Proclamation to direct that coins made at Our Mint other than gold, silver, cupro-nickel and bronze coins shall be current and that any coin shall be legal tender for the payment of any amount:

And Whereas under section 6(2) of the Coinage Act 1971 We have power, with the advice of Our Privy Council, by Proclamation to prescribe the composition of the standard trial plates to be used for determining the justness of coins of any metal other than gold, silver or cupro-nickel:

And Whereas it appears to Us desirable to order that there should be made at Our Mint a new series of coins of the denominations of one hundred pounds, fifty pounds, twenty-five pounds and ten pounds in gold, a new series of coins of the denominations of five hundred pounds, two pounds, fifty pence and twenty pence in silver, and a new series of coins of the denominations of one hundred pounds and ten pounds in platinum:

We, therefore, in pursuance of the said section 3(1)(a), (b), (c), (cc), (cd), (d), (dd), (f) and (ff), the said section 6(2), and of all other powers enabling Us in that behalf, do hereby, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, proclaim, direct and ordain as follows:

ONE HUNDRED POUND GOLD COIN

1. (1) A new coin of gold of the denomination of one hundred pounds shall be made, being a coin of a standard weight of 31.21 grammes, a standard diameter of 32.69 millimetres, a millesimal fineness of not less than 999.9, and being circular in shape.

(2) In the making of the said gold coin a remedy (that is, a variation from the standard weight or diameter specified above) shall be allowed of an amount not exceeding the following, that is to say:

NEW SERIES OF FIFTY PENCE COINS IN GOLD, STANDARD
SILVER, SILVER PIEDFORT, PLATINUM AND CUPRO-NICKEL

CHARLES R.

Whereas under section 3(1)(a), (b), (c), (cc), (cd), (d) and (dd) of the Coinage Act 1971 We have power, with the advice of Our Privy Council, by Proclamation to determine the denomination, the design and dimensions of coins to be made at Our Mint, to determine the weight and fineness of certain gold coins, the remedy to be allowed in the making of such coins and their least current weight, and to determine the weight and composition of coins other than gold coins or coins of silver of Our Maundy money, and the remedy to be allowed in the making of such coins, to provide for the manner of measurement of the variation from the standard weight of coins, and to determine the percentage of impurities which such coins may contain:

And Whereas under section 3(1)(f) and (ff) of the Coinage Act 1971 We have power, with the advice of Our Privy Council, by Proclamation to direct that coins made at Our Mint other than gold, silver, cupro-nickel and bronze coins shall be current and that any coin shall be legal tender for the payment of any amount:

And Whereas under section 6(2) of the Coinage Act 1971 We have power, with the advice of Our Privy Council, by Proclamation to prescribe the composition of the standard trial plates to be used for determining the justness of coins of any metal other than gold, silver or cupro-nickel:

And Whereas it appears to Us desirable to order that there should be made at Our Mint a new series of coins of the denomination of fifty pence in gold, in standard silver, in silver piedfort, in platinum and in cupro-nickel:

We, therefore, in pursuance of the said section 3(1)(a), (b), (c), (cc), (cd), (d), (dd), (f) and (ff), the said section 6(2), and of all other powers enabling Us in that behalf, do hereby, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, proclaim, direct and ordain as follows:

FIFTY PENCE GOLD COIN

1. (1) A new coin of gold of the denomination of fifty pence shall be made, being a coin of a standard weight of 15.5 grammes, a standard diameter of 27.3 millimetres, a millesimal fineness of 916.7, and being in the shape of an equilateral curve heptagon.

(2) In the making of the said gold coin a remedy (that is, a variation from the standard weight, diameter or fineness specified above) shall be allowed of an amount not exceeding the following, that is to say:

(a) a variation from the said standard weight of an amount per coin of 0.078 grammes;

(b) a variation from the said standard diameter of 0.125 millimetres per coin;
and

(c) a variation from the said millesimal fineness of two per mille.

(3) The least current weight of the said gold coin shall be 15.4 grammes.

(4) The variation from the standard weight will be measured as the average of a sample of not more than one kilogram of the coin.

FIFTY PENCE STANDARD SILVER COIN

2. (1) A new coin of silver of the denomination of fifty pence shall be made, being a coin of a standard weight of 8 grammes, a standard diameter of 27.3

millimetres, a standard composition of 925 parts per thousand fine silver, and being in the shape of an equilateral curve heptagon.

(2) In the making of the said silver coin a remedy (that is, a variation from the standard weight, diameter or composition specified above) shall be allowed of an amount not exceeding the following, that is to say:

(a) a variation from the said standard weight of an amount per coin of 0.196 grammes;

(b) a variation from the said standard diameter of 0.125 millimetres per coin;
and

(c) a variation from the said standard composition of five parts per thousand fine silver.

(3) The variation from the standard weight will be measured as the average of a sample of not more than one kilogram of the coin.

(4) The said silver coin shall be legal tender for the payment of any amount in any part of Our United Kingdom.

FIFTY PENCE SILVER PIEDFORT COIN

3. (1) A new coin of silver of the denomination of fifty pence shall be made, being a coin of a standard weight of 16 grammes, a standard diameter of 27.3 millimetres, a standard composition of 925 parts per thousand fine silver, and being in the shape of an equilateral curve heptagon.

(2) In the making of the said silver coin a remedy (that is, a variation from the standard weight, diameter or composition specified above) shall be allowed of an amount not exceeding the following, that is to say:

(a) a variation from the said standard weight of an amount per coin of 0.24 grammes;

(b) a variation from the said standard diameter of 0.125 millimetres per coin;
and

(c) a variation from the said standard composition of five parts per thousand fine silver.

(3) The variation from the standard weight will be measured as the average of a sample of not more than one kilogram of the coin.

(4) The said silver coin shall be legal tender for the payment of any amount in any part of Our United Kingdom.

FIFTY PENCE PLATINUM COIN

4. (1) A new coin of platinum of the denomination of fifty pence shall be made, being a coin of a standard weight of 19.097 grammes, a standard diameter of 27.3 millimetres, and being in the shape of an equilateral curve heptagon.

(2) In the making of the said platinum coin a remedy (that is, a variation from the standard weight or diameter specified above) shall be allowed of an amount not exceeding the following, that is to say:

(a) a variation from the said standard weight of an amount per coin of 0.194 grammes; and

(b) a variation from the said standard diameter of 0.125 millimetres per coin.

(3) The said platinum coin may contain impurities of three-tenths of one per centum.

(4) The variation from the standard weight will be measured as the average of a sample of not more than one kilogram of the coin.

(5) The composition of the standard trial plates to be used for determining the justness of the said platinum coin shall be pure platinum.

(6) The said platinum coin shall be current and shall be legal tender for the payment of any amount in any part of Our United Kingdom.

FIFTY PENCE CUPRO-NICKEL COIN

5. (1) A new coin of cupro-nickel of the denomination of fifty pence shall be made, being a coin of a standard weight of 8 grammes, a standard diameter of 27.3 millimetres, a standard composition of seventy-five per centum copper and twenty-five per centum nickel, and being in the shape of an equilateral curve heptagon.

(2) In the making of the said cupro-nickel coin a remedy (that is, a variation from the standard weight, diameter or composition specified above) shall be allowed of an amount not exceeding the following, that is to say:

(a) a variation from the said standard weight of an amount per coin of 0.336 grammes;

(b) a variation from the said standard diameter of 0.125 millimetres per coin; and

(c) a variation from the said standard composition of two per centum copper and two per centum nickel.

(3) The said cupro-nickel coin may contain impurities of three-quarters of one per centum.

(4) The variation from the standard weight will be measured as the average of a sample of not more than one kilogram of the coin.

(5) The said cupro-nickel coin shall be legal tender for the payment of any amount not exceeding ten pounds in any part of Our United Kingdom.

DESIGN OF THE COINS

6. The design of the said fifty pence gold, silver, silver piedfort, platinum and cupro-nickel coins shall be as follows:

‘For the obverse impression Our effigy with the inscription “· CHARLES III · D · G · REX · F · D · 50 PENCE ·” and the date of the year, and for the reverse a depiction of a man and a woman set against a Union flag accompanied by the number 75 and the inscription “WINDRUSH GENERATIONS”. The coins shall have a plain edge.’

7. This Proclamation shall come into force on the tenth day of November Two thousand and twenty-two.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace this ninth day of November in the year of Our Lord Two thousand and twenty-two and in the first year of Our Reign.

TEN POUND AND FIVE POUND SILVER COINS, AND ONE HUNDRED POUND PLATINUM COINS

CHARLES R.

Whereas under section 3(1)(b) and (h) of the Coinage Act 1971 We have power, with the advice of Our Privy Council, by Proclamation to determine the design of coins to be made at Our Mint, and to alter any Proclamation previously made under the said section:

And Whereas by Our Proclamation dated the eleventh day of May 2022 We determined, among other matters, the design of coins of the denomination of one hundred pounds and twenty-five pounds in gold, of ten pounds and five pounds in silver, and of one hundred pounds in platinum:

And Whereas it appears to Us desirable to determine a new design for the said gold, silver and platinum coins:

We, therefore, in pursuance of the said section 3(1)(b) and (h) and of all other powers enabling Us in that behalf, do hereby, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, proclaim, direct and ordain as follows:

1. In paragraph 1(5) of Our said Proclamation of the eleventh day of May 2022, for ‘Our effigy with the inscription “· ELIZABETH II · D · G · REG · F · D · 100 POUNDS ·”’ there shall be substituted ‘Our effigy with the inscription “· CHARLES III · D · G · REX · F · D · 100 POUNDS”’.

2. In paragraph 2(5) of Our said Proclamation of the eleventh day of May 2022, for ‘Our effigy with the inscription “· ELIZABETH II · D · G · REG · F · D · 25 POUNDS ·”’ there shall be substituted ‘Our effigy with the inscription “· CHARLES III · D · G · REX · F · D · 25 POUNDS”’.

3. In paragraph 3(4) of Our said Proclamation of the eleventh day of May 2022, for ‘Our effigy with the inscription “· ELIZABETH II · D · G · REG · F · D · 10 POUNDS ·”’ there shall be substituted ‘Our effigy with the inscription “· CHARLES III · D · G · REX · F · D · 10 POUNDS”’.

4. In paragraph 4(4) of Our said Proclamation of the eleventh day of May 2022, for ‘Our effigy with the inscription “· ELIZABETH II · D · G · REG · F · D · 5 POUNDS ·”’ there shall be substituted ‘Our effigy with the inscription “· CHARLES III · D · G · REX · F · D · 5 POUNDS”’.

5. In paragraph 5(6) of Our said Proclamation of the eleventh day of May 2022, for ‘Our effigy with the inscription “· ELIZABETH II · D · G · REG · F · D · 100 POUNDS ·”’ there shall be substituted ‘Our effigy with the inscription “· CHARLES III · D · G · REX · F · D · 100 POUNDS”’.

6. This Proclamation shall come into force on the tenth day of November Two thousand and twenty-two.

PLATINUM AND CUPRO-NICKEL AND NICKEL-BRASS

CHARLES R.

Whereas under section 3(1)(b) and (h) of the Coinage Act 1971 We have power, with the advice of Our Privy Council, by Proclamation to determine the design of coins to be made at Our Mint, and to alter any Proclamation previously made under the said section:

And Whereas by Our Proclamation dated the eighth day of June 2022 We determined, among other matters, the design of coins of the denomination of two pounds in gold, standard silver, silver piedfort, platinum and cupro-nickel and nickel-brass:

And Whereas it appears to Us desirable to determine a new design for the said gold, standard silver, silver piedfort, platinum and cupro-nickel and nickel-brass coins:

We, therefore, in pursuance of the said section 3(1)(b) and (h) and of all other powers enabling Us in that behalf, do hereby, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, proclaim, direct and ordain as follows:

1. In paragraph 6 of Our said Proclamation of the eighth day of June 2022, for ‘Our effigy with the inscription “· ELIZABETH II · D · G · REG · F · D · 2 POUNDS ·” and the date of the year’ there shall be substituted ‘Our effigy with the inscription “· CHARLES III · D · G · REX · F · D · 2 POUNDS ·” and the date of the year’.

2. This Proclamation shall come into force on the tenth day of November Two thousand and twenty-two.

Royal Assent to Legislation and Petitions
(Bailiwick of Jersey) Order 2022

His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of all the powers in His Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered for Himself, and His Heirs and Successors in Council, as follows:

1. This Order may be cited as the Royal Assent to Legislation and Petitions (Bailiwick of Jersey) Order 2022 and shall commence the day after the day on which it is made.
2. The whole Privy Council, or any two or more of them, are hereby appointed a single Committee for the Affairs of Jersey and Guernsey under this Order and the Royal Assent to Legislation and Petitions (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Order 2022, as, from time to time, amended, supplemented, or re-enacted (with or without modification).
3. All Laws adopted by the States of Jersey and submitted to His Majesty in Council, for His Majesty's approval, and all Petitions received from the Bailiwick of Jersey shall be referred to, and they are hereby referred to, the said Committee for its consideration and report.
4. Their Lordships shall report thereupon to His Majesty at this Committee in like manner as if such Laws and Petitions had been referred to the said Committee by a special Order of His Majesty in Council.
5. The said Committee shall not ordinarily postpone its consideration of any such Laws if a Petition is made against them and is received later than 28 days after their final adoption by the States of Jersey.
6. This Order will continue in effect for His Majesty's Heirs and Successors in Council, until He or They further Order.

Richard Tilbrook

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order replaces the General Order of Reference dated 22 February 1952 and the Supplementary Order dated 13 July 2011 (“the previous Orders”), both made by Her Late Majesty Queen Elizabeth II, relating to the Committee for the Affairs of Jersey and Guernsey.

This Order reconstitutes a single Committee for the Affairs of Jersey and Guernsey in order to perform the duties set out in this Order. Its duties in respect of the Bailiwick of Guernsey are set out in the Royal Assent to Legislation and Petitions (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Order 2022.

This Order consolidates the previous Orders for the purposes of the Bailiwick of Jersey and promotes continuity and stability by continuing in effect for His Majesty’s Heirs and Successors in Council.

Royal Assent to Legislation and Sodor and Man Diocesan Synod Measures (Isle of Man)
Order 2022

His Majesty is this day pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order and it is hereby ordered as follows –

1. This Order in Council may be cited as the Royal Assent to Legislation and Sodor and Man Diocesan Synod Measures (Isle of Man) Order 2022.
2. This Order shall commence the day after the day on which it is made.
3. All Bills of Tynwald passed or to be passed in and wholly relating to the internal affairs of the Isle of Man, and Measures of the Sodor and Man Diocesan Synod, passed by the Synod and approved by Tynwald, shall continue to be submitted to the Lieutenant-Governor of the Isle of Man who may, in turn, assent to them on behalf of His Majesty subject to the provisions of Articles 4 to 7.

Regarding Acts of Tynwald

4. The Lieutenant-Governor shall reserve, for the signification of His Majesty's pleasure, any Bill that the Lieutenant-Governor considers should be so reserved or is directed to reserve by the Lord Chancellor. The Lieutenant-Governor shall, additionally, consult the Lord Chancellor about the reservation of any Bill which, in the opinion of the Lieutenant-Governor

(a) deals wholly or partly with defence, international relations, nationality and citizenship, the powers and remuneration of the Lieutenant-Governor, or the constitutional relationship between the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, and the Isle of Man; or

(b) affects the Royal Prerogative of the Rights of His Majesty in right of His private capacity.

5. The Lieutenant-Governor, before assenting to any Bill, must be satisfied that the Lord Chancellor has decided not to give a direction to the Lieutenant-Governor under Article 4.

Regarding Measures of the Sodor and Man Diocesan Synod

6. The Lieutenant-Governor shall reserve, for the signification of His Majesty's pleasure, any Measure that the Lieutenant-Governor considers should be so reserved or is directed to reserve by the Lord Chancellor. The Lieutenant-Governor shall additionally consult the Lord Chancellor about the reservation of any Measure which in the opinion of the Lieutenant-Governor –

- (a) deals wholly or partly with the constitution of the Isle of Man;
- (b) affects the rights of patronage of His Majesty; or
- (c) without prejudice to paragraph (a) and (b), would fall within paragraphs (a) or (b) of Article 3 if it were a Bill.

7. The Lieutenant-Governor, before assenting to any Measure, must be satisfied that the Lord Chancellor has decided not to give a direction to the Lieutenant-Governor under Article 6.

8. This Order will continue in effect for His Majesty's Heirs and Successors in Council, until He or They further Order.

THE 9th DAY OF NOVEMBER 2022

PRESENT,

THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY
IN COUNCIL

The Secretary of State for Justice, after giving ten days' notice of his intention to do so, has, under the Burial Act 1853 as amended, made representations to His Majesty in Council that, subject to the exceptions below, burials should be discontinued in:-

- 1) St John the Evangelist Church Churchyard, Goldenhill, Stoke on Trent, Staffordshire (as shown hatched on the plan annexed hereto);
- 2) St Michael's Churchyard, Stoke Gifford, Bristol (as shown hatched on the plan annexed hereto).

The exceptions are that in the place numbered 2 above, in any existing earthen grave in the churchyard, the burial may be allowed of the body of any member of the family of the person or persons previously buried in that grave, but no part of the coffin containing the body shall be less than one metre below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

His Majesty in Council is pleased to give Notice of these representations and to order that they be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council on 21st December 2022.

And His Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order should be published in the London Gazette, and that copies of it should be fixed on the doors of the Churches or Chapels of the above mentioned places, or displayed conspicuously inside them, for one month before 21st December 2022.
