

At the Council Chamber, Whitehall

THE 31st DAY OF JANUARY 2025

BY THE LORDS OF HIS MAJESTY’S MOST HONOURABLE
PRIVY COUNCIL

The Privy Council has allowed amendments to the By-laws of the Royal Society for Public Health as set out below.

Richard Tilbrook, CVO

SCHEDULE

AMENDMENTS TO THE BY-LAWS OF THE ROYAL SOCIETY FOR PUBLIC HEALTH

1. In By-law 3.2:
 - (a) delete “nine” and substitute “five”; and
 - (b) delete “twenty-five” and substitute “fifteen”.
2. In By-law 3.3:
 - (a) delete “Chairman” and substitute “Chair”; and
 - (b) delete “Vice-Chairman” and substitute “Vice Chair”.
3. Delete By-law 3.5(A) and substitute:

“3.5(A) The term of office for all trustees will be three years (but may be such shorter period as the Council may determine) renewable for a further immediate term of up to three years.”.
4. Delete By-law 3.5(B) and substitute:

“3.5(B) Trustees are expected to retire from the Council after two consecutive terms unless the Trustee holds an elected office of the council, the discharge of which would require continuation of service as a trustee, or the Council resolve to extend a Trustee’s term of office by special resolution.”.

5. Insert new By-law 3.5(C):

“3.5(C) No Trustee shall serve for a continuous period that exceeds nine years unless the Council resolve otherwise by special resolution.”.

6. In By-law 3.7(G) delete “Chairman” and substitute “Chair”.