1. The membership of Senate will be as set out in the Ordinances.
2. The Vice Chancellor shall be ex-officio Chair of the Senate.

Statute 12: Powers of the Senate

1. The Senate is the principal body responsible for the strategic development of academic activities at the University.
2. Subject to the powers reserved to the Council by these Statutes, the Senate will take such measures and act in such a manner as appears to it best calculated to:
 - a) Promote the academic endeavour of the University, in education, research and innovation.
 - b) Regulate the education and discipline of the students of the University.
 - c) Provide assurance to Council that academic governance, quality and standards are adequate and effective.
3. The powers, duties and functions of the Senate will be set out in the Ordinances.
4. Subject to the Charter and these Statutes, the Senate may delegate any of its powers, duties, and functions to a committee of the Senate, or to any person or faculty. Any delegation of function shall be explicit and a matter of record and may be revoked at any time.

Statute 13: Boards of Studies

1. The membership of Boards of Studies will be as set out in the Ordinances.
2. There shall be a Board of Studies of each Faculty which shall have the following functions:
 - a) To advise and report to the Senate on all matters relating to the organisation of education, teaching, learning, and research in the subjects of the Faculty, including curricula and examinations.
 - b) To consider the progress of Students in the Faculty.
 - c) To appoint internal and external examiners in the subjects of the Faculty.

- d) To recommend to the Senate any appointment of an external examiner where the aggregate term of office exceeds four consecutive years.
 - e) To consider and where necessary act on any matters which may be referred to it by the Senate.
 - f) To advise and recommend to the Senate on the academic strategy of the Faculty.
 - g) To carry out any functions which may be given to or imposed on it by the Ordinances.
3. There shall also be such Joint Boards of Studies of two or more Faculties and such Boards or Joint Boards of Studies of such Institutes, Centres or other Academic Sections, and having such function, as the Senate may from time to time determine.

Statute 14: The Academic Assembly

1. The membership of the Academic Assembly will be as set out in the Ordinances.
2. There shall be at least one ordinary meeting of the Academic Assembly during each year and the Chair of the Academic Assembly may summon an extraordinary meeting at any time.
3. The Academic Assembly may make recommendations to the Council or to the Senate on any matter relating to the University. This may include recommendation on any matters referred to it by the Council or the Senate.

Statute 15: Degree Ceremonies

1. The University will hold Degree Ceremonies for the purpose of presenting graduates of the University.
2. The Degree Ceremonies will be held at least once every year at such time and place as determined by the Senate, and will normally be presided over by the Chancellor, or, in the Chancellor's absence, the Vice-Chancellor. In the absence of the Chancellor or Vice-Chancellor, a Pro-Chancellor may preside at the Ceremony but may not confer degrees.
3. The procedures for Degree Ceremonies and all other matters relating to Degree Ceremonies will be determined by the Senate.

Statute 16: The Union of Students

There will be a union of students of the University (the "Students' Union"). The Students' Union will conduct and manage its own affairs and funds in accordance with a constitution approved by the Council.

Statute 17: The Employment of Staff

1. The policies which relate to staff shall be designed to create a culture of justice, equity and inclusivity where every individual has opportunity to realise their potential in pursuit of the University's mission to provide high quality education and engage in impactful research. Procedures aimed at implementing these policies will be in line with good practice as described by ACAS or any successor organisation.
2. The Council shall ensure that procedures and policies are in place to achieve the aims of 17.1, and in particular shall be required to approve any proposals to change to the following policies where there is a significant impact on all staff or particular groups of staff as agreed with the recognised Trades Unions in line with the Trade Union Recognition Agreement:
 - a) Discipline
 - b) Capability
 - c) Grievance (Dispute Resolution)
 - d) Managing sickness
 - e) Dignity and Respect
 - f) Organisational change (Redundancy)
3. Staff policies and procedures will provide that staff have freedom within the law to question and test received wisdom, and to put forward new ideas and controversial or unpopular opinions, without placing themselves in jeopardy of losing their jobs or privileges.
4. Council will ensure that provisions are in place for the effective management of the role of Vice-Chancellor.

Statute 18: The Auditor

The Council shall appoint (and may remove) an external auditor or auditors to audit the annual financial statements of the University. Every such auditor shall be a member of a recognised supervisory body and eligible for appointment under the rules of the body.

Statute 19: Interpretation of Statutes

These Statutes will be interpreted in such manner as not to conflict with the Charter.
